The Horror of Police Travis Linnemann, 2022-09-06 Unmasks the horrors of a social order reproduced and maintained by the violence of police Year after year the crisis churns graft and corruption violence and murder riot cops and armored vehicles claim city streets Despite promises of reform police operate with impunity unaccountable to law In The Horror of Police Travis Linnemann asks why with this open record of violence and corruption policing remains for so many the best perhaps only means of security in an insecure world Drawing on the language and texts of horror fiction Linnemann recasts the police not only as self-proclaimed monster fighters but as monsters themselves a terrifying force set loose in the world Purposefully misreading a collection of everyday police stories TV cop dramas detective fiction news media accounts the direct words of police not as morality tales of innocence avenged and order restored but as horror Linnemann reveals the monstrous violence at the heart of liberal social order The Horror of Police shows that police violence is not a deviation but rather a deliberate and permanent fixture of U S law and order Only when viewed through the refracted motif of horror stories Linnemann argues can we begin to reckon the limits of police and imagine a world without them

Projecting Tomorrow James Chapman, Nicholas J. Cull, 2013-01-30 Cinema and science fiction were made for each other The science fiction genre has produced some of the most extraordinary films ever made yet science fiction cinema is about more than just special effects It has also provided a vehicle for filmmakers and writers to comment on their own societies and cultures This new exploration of the genre examines landmark science fiction films from the 1930s to the present They include genre classics such as Things to Come Forbidden Planet and 2001 A Space Odyssey alongside modern blockbusters Star Wars and Avatar Chapman and Cull consider both screen originals and adaptations of the work of major science fiction authors They also range widely across the genre from pulp adventure and space opera to political allegory and speculative documentary there is even a science fiction musical Informed throughout by extensive research in US and British archives the book documents the production histories of each film to show how they made their way to the screen and why they turned out the way they did

Educating Beyond Violent Futures Francis Hutchinson, 2005-06-27 As we enter the Twenty First Century it is easy to assume that worsening trends in violence will be a feature of our lives whether in our schools our societies or as a species Educating Beyond Violent Futures challenges assumptions that trends in violence are destiny and raises crucial questions about choice and engagement Drawing upon new research this book is essential reading for those who want to prepare our children for living constructively in the next century

Carceral Capitalism Jackie Wang, 2018-02-23 Essays on the contemporary continuum of incarceration the biopolitics of juvenile delinquency predatory policing the political economy of fees and fines and algorithmic policing What we see happening in Ferguson and other cities around the country is not the creation of livable spaces but the creation of living hells When people are trapped in a cycle of debt it also can affect their subjectivity and how they temporally inhabit the world by making it difficult for them to imagine and plan for the future What psychic toll does this have on residents How does it feel to be routinely dehumanized and exploited by the police from Carceral Capitalism In this collection of essays in Semiotext e s Intervention series Jackie Wang examines the contemporary incarceration techniques that have emerged since the 1990s The essays illustrate various aspects of the carceral continuum including the biopolitics of juvenile delinquency predatory policing the political economy of fees and fines cybernetic governance and algorithmic policing Included in this volume is Wang s influential critique of liberal anti racist politics Against Innocence as well as essays on RoboCop techno policing and the aesthetic problem of making invisible forms of power legible Wang shows that the new racial capitalism begins with parasitic governance and predatory lending that extends credit only to dispossess later Predatory lending has a decidedly spatial character and exists in many forms including subprime mortgage loans student loans for sham for profit colleges car loans rent to own scams payday loans and bail bond loans Parasitic governance Wang argues operates through five primary techniques financial states of exception automation extraction and looting confinement and gratuitous violence While these techniques of governance often involve physical confinement and the state sanctioned execution of black Americans new carceral modes have blurred the distinction between the inside and outside of prison As technologies of control are perfected carcerality tends to bleed into society
