What do you think a hero is It s just the right person in the right place making the right choice at the right time Heroes aren t born They re made A demonic assassin A half orc boxer A ratman necromancer Though they take many different shapes and forms there are heroes all around us Bravery can be found in the most unexpected places a subterranean dwarven city the sands of a temple courtyard in Ancient Egypt a besieged castle a Victorian brothel a goblin warren the post apocalyptic ruins of a demon infested village Heroes dwell in the shadows as well as the light you just have to look a little harder to find them Who do they fight Some heroes challenge injustice in all its numerous guises while others hunt monsters both human and bestial Others battle inner demons the ghosts of their past their deepest nightmares or even the gods themselves Why do they fight For glory Sometimes For honor Perhaps There are those who instinctively strive to protect those weaker than themselves and there are others emboldened only by a sense of obligation or the promise of wealth Whether by the blade or other means they endeavor to take down all who threaten what is good and right in their world By hook or by crook through cunning or combat with tooth and claw or iron and steel they are all united in one goal willingly or not to live and die if necessary a hero Choose your weapon Fight for what you believe in Never give up Nineteen fantasy writers gather to bring illustrated presentation of a large but generally little known assemblage of petroglyphic rock art from the Western Desert of Egypt Rock art in Dakhleh was produced for perhaps as long as 10 millennia resulting in the formation of hundreds of sites displaying thousands of images In some places petroglyphs form a true melting pot of iconographic creations elsewhere only isolated depictions appear on rock surfaces Various rock art traditions from prehistoric through pharaonic Graeco Roman and mediaeval have all added to a tremendous variety of petroglyphs their formal traits and subject matter This book is the first ever monograph on Dakhleh Oasis rock art providing both an introduction to the versatile topic as well as an overview of the current state of research It is designed as a collection of essays that deal with specific aspects of the research The reader is offered here not only old and new documentation much of it previously unpublished but also a great deal of innovative interpretation All chapters although devoted to different case studies revolve around an all encompassing concept of landscape of motion It is argued here that rock art regardless of its date of origin was and is always involved in certain dynamic contexts In Dakhleh the majority of petroglyphs especially during historical periods were produced in spatial contexts of paths and routes and thus by people on the move It is argued here that various kinds of movement were often a significant factor contributing to the meaning and function of the images The intention of this book is to explore and unveil such contexts which may prove somewhat elusive if we focus our analyses exclusively on the representational aspects of rock art Such a type of integration of rock art landscape and motion is the major aim of this work and has hopefully been achieved by merging perspectives and concepts derived from Egyptology Anthropology and other social sciences The Field Dog Stud Book ,1906 Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office USA Patent Office,1872
