Sex Graphic killings Profanity Adultery Flip on the television head for the movie theater or open a newspaper and you can't get away from it How do you raise a family in a world supersaturated with media extolling toxic values that are not your own Media critic Dr Ted Baehr and legendary entertainer Pat Boone draw from their own extensive experiences and interviews with experts to help readers understand the power of the media and its influence on families They also examine the ongoing threats to family values by those in the media who promote a humanistic worldview Media consumers are challenged to understand their own worldviews make wise choices and are given the information they need to do so Baehr and Boone also look at the progress that has been made in family values programming in Hollywood and offer hope for the future Going Public David Pritchard, Kelli Pritchard, Dean Merrill, 2008-04-01

Greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world 1 John 4:4 Taking this verse at face value provides the perfect opportunity to prove it in the educational setting of our children say the authors of Going Public By nurturing the life and power of Christ within them students will be ready to stand against negative influences no matter the environment even bringing light to a dark place They will also benefit from many of the services that the often well financed public school system has to offer Readers of this practical guide will learn how moms and dads have a strategic role to play in the ongoing development of their school age children Discover what the Bible says about education the three most important things to teach your public school child how to shape your child through teachable moments the importance of getting involved at school and why everyone should home school in addition to public school The Ultimate Survival Guide for Children's Ministry Workers Ivy Beckwith, 2007-05-07
