Girl on the Rocks Katie Brown,2008-11-18 For women intrigued by the sport of climbing but intimidated by its male dominance and stereotype as extreme Girl on the Rocks is a monumental resource providing instructions on technique strength and mental agility from a woman s perspective Through the sage advice of one of the world s foremost female climbers and the lens of an internationally acclaimed photographer women learn that climbing is more fun than dangerous that overcoming fear can boost self esteem and that the fitness benefits for women are tremendous

Most women learn climbing from men but the sport is different for a woman both physically and psychologically and it is empowering for women to learn about climbing from girls who've been on the rocks themselves. The numerous photos in this full color guide do wonders to clearly explain the various techniques, equipment and styles of climbing for women. Further bringing the sport to life, author Katie Brown presents her interviews with numerous female climbers from a young girl to a sixty something professional climber to learn what the sport has done for them. Climbing, 2007. When Kids Can't Read, what Teachers Can Do G. Kylene Beers, 2003. For Kylene Beers the question of what to do when kids can't read surfaced in 1979 when she met and began teaching a boy named George. When George's parents asked her to explain why he couldn't read and how she could help, Beers, a secondary certified English teacher with no background in reading, realized she had little to offer. That moment sent her on a twenty three year search for answers to the question: How do we help middle and high schoolers who can't read? Now she shares what she has learned and shows teachers how to help struggling readers with comprehension, vocabulary, fluency, word recognition and motivation. Filled with student transcripts, detailed strategies, reproducible material and extensive booklists, Beers' guide to teaching reading both instructs and inspires. The Rough Guide to Ecuador & the Galápagos Islands Melissa Graham, Harry Ades, Sara Humphreys, Shafik Meghji, 2013-09-02.
