Kalellis,2004-06-10 In the spring of 1941 the Nazis invaded Greece and by the end of April they had invaded most of the islands of the Aegean including the beautiful Lesbos home of young Takis Peter Kalellis While cycling to school fifteen year old Takis was horrified to see a swastika flying atop the old castle in Mytilene the island s capital city Later in the day the soldiers ransacked his home town of Moria and a Nazi lieutenant confiscated his bike That night under cover of darkness Takis violated the curfew to remove the direction signs erected by the Germans So began the struggle against the invaders This riveting account of fighting and enduring the occupation is both a memoir of harrowing times and a story of Kalellis and his three idealistic fiercely loyal young friends who defy the invading powers and suffer the consequences of imprisonment and torture It is also the story of the people of the ancient city of Mytilene who cling to the hope of liberation and freedom for three long years On September 10 1944 Lesbos was officially liberated The four young men who survived the occupation were able to see the emancipation of their beloved homeland and life gradually returned to normal as they went their separate ways As Takis left for America his comrade Papavasile handed him a small vial saying Take this with you Takis It is a little vial of earth Greek earth You can look upon it as an amulet to ward off evil and grief There is nothing more precious my son than this little piece of Greece cooled by nocturnal winds baptized in the blood of the brave and scented by Aegean breezes Takis kissed his hand I ll keep it close to my heart and draw strength from it And some day Papavasile responded come back to us The Walls Have Eyes Petra Molnar,2024-05-21 With a Foreword by E Tendayi Achiume A chilling expos of the inhumane and lucrative sharpening of borders around the globe through experimental surveillance technology Finalist for the Governor General s Literary Award for Nonfiction In 2022 the U S Department of Homeland Security announced it was training robot dogs to help secure the U S Mexico border against migrants Four legged machines equipped with cameras and sensors would join a network of drones and automated surveillance towers nicknamed the smart wall This is part of a worldwide trend as more people are displaced by war economic instability and a warming planet more countries are turning to AI driven technology to manage the influx Based on years of researching borderlands across the world lawyer and anthropologist Petra Molnar s The Walls Have Eyes is a truly global story a dystopian vision turned reality where your body is your passport and matters of life and death are
