Roden Cutler Vc:

Roden Cutler, V. C. Colleen McCullough, 1999 The Courage and the Will Colleen McCullough, 1999 Roden Cutler's list of honours is long and impressive but it is his sole decoration the Victoria Cross that marks him as a hero. Over 800 000 men and women served in the Australian armed forces during the Second World War but only twenty were awarded the V C. Colleen McCullough vividly shows us the life and times of the young soldier with the dashing good looks, the laconic humour and dislike of pretension who came back from the war determined to continue to support his mother but having lost a leg with no idea how to do so. Yet by the age of 29 he was the Australian High Commissioner to New Zealand. His diplomatic career was to include stints to Ceylon, Egypt during the Suez crisis of 1956, Pakistan and New York. In 1966 he was appointed Governor of New South Wales. During his 15 years in that office he shared with Captain Arthur Phillip and Lachlan Macquarie he earned his own niche among them as the people's governor. Much loved, still remembered as a man equally at home in the company of royalty or trade unionists. His story is embedded in Australian history and part of it. But it is also the story of a man who pulled himself up by his bootstraps to serve his country with courage and dignity in the face of all obstacles. In an age accustomed to public idols with feet of clay, Roden Cutler is the exception, a man whose integrity is as formidable as his humility is astonishing.

Roden Cutler, V.c Colleen McCullough, 1999 Roden Cutler's list of honours is long and impressive. The life and times of the young soldier who by the age of 29 was the Australian High Commissioner to New Zealand and achieved distinguished diplomatic career.

Victoria Crosses on the Western Front Paul Oldfield, 2022-09-15 In the past while visiting the First World War battlefields the author often wondered where the various Victoria Cross actions took place. He resolved to find out. In 1988 in the midst of his army career research for this book commenced and over the years numerous sources have been consulted. Victoria Crosses on the Western Front Second Battle of Bapaume is designed for the battlefield visitor as much as the armchair reader. A thorough account of each VC action is set within the wider strategic and tactical context. Detailed sketch maps show the area today together with the battle lines and movements of the combatants. It will allow visitors to stand upon the spot or very close to where each VC was won. Photographs of the battle sites richly illustrate the accounts. There is also a comprehensive biography for each recipient covering every aspect of their lives: wars and all parents and siblings, education, civilian employment, military career, wife and children, death and burial, commemoration. A host of other information, much of it published for the first time, reveals some fascinating characters with numerous links to many famous people and events.

Slim Ronald Lewin, 1999 Field Marshal the Viscount Slim was blessed with none of the advantages of wealth and social position that eased the progress of many army officers. With only his integrity, personality and intellect he rose to the pinnacle of his career.
