My Unsentimental Education

Debra Monroe,2015-10 A misfit in Spooner Wisconsin with its farms bars and strip joints Debra Monroe leaves to earn a degree then another and another and builds a career if only because her plans to be a midwestern housewife continually get scuttled Fearless but naive she vaults over class barriers but never quite leaves her past behind When it comes to men she s still bluecollar Negotiating the world of dating Monroe pays careful attention to what love and sex mean to a woman ambivalent about her newfound status as liberated Both the story of her steady rise into the professional class and a parallel history of unsuitable exes this memoir reminds us how accidental even a good life can be If Joan Didion advises us to keep on nodding terms with the people we used to be Monroe takes this advice a step further and nods at the people she might have become but didn't Funny poignant wise My Unsentimental Education explores the confusion that ensues when a working class girl ends up far from where she began
