The chapters in this volume address several key questions school board members are currently facing as they struggle to protect some of our country's earliest guardrails of democracy: local control of schools. To be sure, school boards are no longer the forgotten players. Implications of this may be wide reaching and therefore deserve room in the current literature on educational governance. Volume II of the Research on the Superintendency series highlights recent research on school boards, local control, governance, and the superintendency. Each chapter is briefly described, and the chapters are in a particular order that readers may wish to pay attention to as they enjoy the book. The first three chapters deal with local control in both rural and urban settings. The next two chapters are studies focused mainly on school boards and how their roles have shifted over the years, followed by a chapter on the relationship between school boards and their superintendents within a regulatory environment and the level of stress it can bring to board members and superintendents. The final five chapters describe recent superintendent research that is closely linked to school governance or school board policies. We ask readers to juxtapose lessons learned in those five chapters to the role of school boards within the context of those chapters.

Effective Superintendent-School Board Practices Rene S. Townsend, Gloria L. Johnston, Gwen E. Gross, Peggy Lynch, Lorraine Garcy, Benita Roberts, Patricia B. Novotney, 2006-09-14. Superintendents and board members are provided real life vignettes highlighting challenges and successes, information on building relationships and managing conflict, and reflective practice questions and self assessment. Leadership and School Boards Laura Reimer, 2015. Resources in Education, 1997. The Board-Savvy Superintendent Paul D. Houston, Doug Eadie, 2002-11-23. The Board Savvy Superintendent's hard hitting no nonsense advice on school board leadership capitalizes on Houston and Eadie's hands on experience working with hundreds of boards and superintendents over the past quarter century. It is a practical survive and thrive book that will help school district leaders, board members, superintendents, and senior administrators learn to work together successfully in leading their districts in these extraordinarily challenging times. Filled with detailed, thoroughly tested guidance on how to acquire the skills and knowledge that make up board savvyness, it also addresses how to develop the school board's capacity to produce truly high impact governance and how to build a strong, enduring, productive board superintendent working partnership. The authors take a fresh look at the process of governing, going well beyond the old fashioned control focused policy governance approach. Rather than being preoccupied with developing a static structure of policies to distinguish the board's role from the superintendent's, the book describes how the board and superintendent can creatively work together in making decisions about such critical governing products as values, vision, mission, and strategic change initiatives. School district leaders will appreciate The Board Savvy Superintendent's close look at the gold standard for board involvement in school affairs, leading strategic change. The authors go well beyond the conventional long range planning approach of merely projecting everything a school district is doing for some arbitrary period of 3 or 5 years, which has generated tons of paper and little important change, to provide the reader with detailed practical guidance on engaging school boards creatively and proactively in a much more selective vision driven process that actually results in the implementation of strategic change the Strategic Change Portfolio     Jsl Vol 9-N2 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP,1999-03-01 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement     The Work of Boards of Education Hans Christian Olsen,1926     The American School Board Journal William George Bruce,William Conrad Bruce,1923
