Larke-Walsh,2018-11-20 A companion to the study of the gangster film s international appeal spanning the Americas Europe and Asia A Companion to the Gangster Film presents a comprehensive overview of the newest scholarship on the contemporary gangster film genre as a global phenomenon While gangster films are one of America s most popular genres gangster movies appear in every film industry across the world With contributions from an international panel of experts A Companion to the Gangster Film explores the popularity of gangster films across three major continents the Americas Europe and Asia The authors acknowledge the gangster genre s popularity and examine the reasons supporting its appeal to twenty first century audiences across the globe The book examines common themes across all three continents such as production histories and reception gender race and sexuality mafia mythologies and politics In addition the companion clearly shows that no national cinema develops in isolation and that cinema is a truly global popular art form This important guide to the gangster film genre Reveals how the gangster film engages in complex and contradictory themes Examines the changing face of the gangster film in America Explores the ideas of gangsterism and migration in the Hispanic USA Latin America and the Caribbean Discusses the wide variety of gangster types to appear in European cinema Contains a review of a wide range of gangster films from the Americans Europe and Asia Written for academics and students of film A Companion to the Gangster Film offers a scholarly and authoritative guide exploring the various aspects and international appeal of the gangster film genre Narcoepics Hermann Herlinghaus, 2013-02-14

Narcoepics Unbound foregrounds the controversial yet mostly untheorized phenomenon of contemporary Latin American narcoepics Dealing with literary works and films whose characteristics are linked to illicit global exchange informal labor violence bare life drug consumption and ritualistic patterns of identity it argues for a new theoretical approach to better understand these narratives of intoxication Foregrounding the art that has arisen from or seeks to describe drug culture Herlinghaus comparative study looks at writers such as Gutierrez J J Rodriguez Reverte films such as City of God and the narratives surrounding cultural villains heroes such as Pablo Escobar Narcoepics shows that that in order to grasp the aesthetic and ethical core of these narratives it is pivotal first to develop an aesthetics of sobriety The aim is to establish a criteria for a new kind of literary studies in which cultural hermeneutics plays as much a part as political philosophy analysis of religion and neurophysiological inquiry Commodifying Violence in Literature and on Screen Alejandro Herrero-Olaizola, 2021-10-18

This book traverses the cultural landscape of Colombia through in depth analyses of displacement local and global cultures human rights abuses and literary and media production Through an exploration of the cultural processes that perpetuate the darker side of Latin America for global consumption it investigates the condition that has led writers filmmakers and artists to embrace purposefully or not the incessant violence in Colombian society as the object of their own creative endeavors In this examination of mass marketed cultural products such as narco stories captivity memoirs gritty travel narratives and films Herrero Olaizola seeks to offer a hemispheric approach to the role played by Colombia in cultural production across the continent where the illicit drug trade has made significant inroads To this end he identifies the Colombian condition within the parameters of the global economy while concentrating on the commodification of Latin America's violence for cultural consumption The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
