works attest strongly to the interest and pains they have taken in the subject To all these whoever they may be the world owes a debt of gratitude for devoting their time and their talents to so important a branch of study To each of them I tender my own thanks for having devoted themselves to the elucidation of one of my favourite pursuits and for having given to the world the result of their labours No work has however until now been entirely devoted to the one subject of British Ceramics and I feel therefore that in presenting my present volumes to the public I am only carrying out the plan I at first laid down and am not even in the slightest degree encroaching on the province of any other writer The ceramic art of Great Britain, from pre-historic times Llewellynn Frederick W. Jewitt,1878 William F. Winter and the New Mississippi Charles C. Bolton,2013-07-08 The life story of the Mississippi governor known for his fight for education and racial reconciliation
