Through a Noir Lens Sheri Chinen Biesen, 2024-06-18

Shadows Smoke Dark alleys Rain slicked city streets These are iconic elements of film noir visual style Long after its 1940s heyday noir hallmarks continue to appear in a variety of new media forms and styles What has made the noir aesthetic at once enduring and adaptable Sheri Chinen Biesen explores how the dark cinematic noir style has evolved across eras from classic Hollywood to present day streaming services Examining both aesthetics and material production conditions she demonstrates how technological and industrial changes have influenced the imagery of film noir When it emerged in the early 1940s the visual style s distinctive shadowy look was in part a product of wartime cinema conditions and technologies such as blackouts and nitrate film stock Since the 1950s technical developments from acetate film stock and new cameras and lenses to lighting color and digitization have shaped the changing nature of noir style Biesen considers the persistence of the noir legacy discussing how neo noirs reimagine iconic imagery and why noir style has become a touchstone in the streaming era Drawing on a wealth of archival research she provides insightful analyses of a wide range of works from masterpieces directed by Billy Wilder and Alfred Hitchcock to New Hollywood neo noirs the Coen brothers revisionist films and recent HBO and Netflix series A groundbreaking technological and industrial history of an essential yet slippery visual style Through a Noir Lens shines a light into the shadows of film noir Framing French Culture Natalie Edwards, Ben McCann, 2015

Throughout this book the concept of framing is used to look at art photography scientific drawings and cinema as visually constituted spatially bounded productions The way these genres relate to that which exists beyond the frame by means of plastic chemically transposed pencil sketched or moving images allows us to decipher the particular language of the visual and at the same time circumscribe the dialectic between presence and absence that is proper to all visual media Yet these kinds of re framing owe their existence to the ruptures and upheavals that marked the demise of certain discursive systems in the past announcing the emergence of others that were in turn overturned Music and Sound in the Worlds

Representing Jazz Krin Gabbard, 1995 Traditional jazz studies have tended to see jazz in purely musical terms as a series of changes in rhythm tonality and harmony or as a parade of great players But jazz has also entered the cultural mix through its significant impact on novelists filmmakers dancers painters biographers and photographers Representing Jazz explores the other history of jazz created by these artists a history that tells us as much about the meaning of the music as do the many books that narrate the lives of musicians or describe their recordings Krin Gabbard has gathered essays by distinguished writers from a variety of fields They provide engaging analyses of films such as Round Midnight Bird Mo Better Blues Cabin in the Sky and Jammin the Blues the writings of Eudora Welty and Dorothy Baker the careers of the great lindy hoppers of the 1930s and 1940s Mura Dehn s extraordinary documentary on jazz dance the jazz photography of William Claxton painters of the New York School the traditions of jazz autobiography and the art of vocalese The contributors to this volume assess the influence of extramusical sources on our knowledge of jazz and suggest that the living contexts of the music must be considered if a more sophisticated jazz scholarship is ever to evolve Transcending the familiar patterns of jazz history and criticism Representing Jazz looks at how the music actually has been heard and felt at different levels of American culture With its companion anthology Jazz Among the Discourses this volume will enrich and transform the literature of jazz studies Its provocative essays will interest both aficionados and potential jazz fans Contributors Karen Backstein Leland H Chambers Robert P Crease Krin Gabbard Frederick Garber Barry K Grant Mona Hadler Christopher Harlos Michael Jarrett Adam Knee Arthur Knight James Naremore
