Rubens A Portrait:

Rubens: A Portrait Paul Oppenheimer, 2002-05-21 The most popular painter of his day yet an artist whose reputation has fluctuated among art scholars and critics of the succeeding centuries Peter Paul Rubens 1577 1640 is chiefly remembered today for his large canvases of sensual gardens religious scenes and voluptuous Rubenesque women In Oppenheimer s account of his life Rubens emerges not only as a talented painter but also as an intellectual with a unique conception of beauty that proved very influential and ahead of his time Oppenheimer explores Rubens ideas as he tells the story of his life which included years as a diplomat and illuminates his response to the humanism of the Renaissance in which he lived Rubens in Private Nils Büttner, Rubenshuis (Antwerp, Belgium), 2015 Michelangelo regarded portraiture as a trivial genre and Peter Paul Rubens did not instantly develop a preference for it either Yet Rubens succeeded as none other in endowing his portraits with an almost palpable sense of immediacy and was to become one of the greatest portraitists of all time His most beautiful and surprising portraits are those of his immediate family These intimate pictures were not intended for public display and are therefore considerably freer and more experimental than the likenesses he painted of influential patrons Nothing about these private images seems idealized They are uncommonly honest and veracious and at the same time expressive of great tenderness While the hundreds of letters he wrote reveal very little about his emotional life Rubens s portraits of family members testify in a special way to the affection he felt for his first and second wives his brother and his children

Rubens-Baroque Artist, Renaissance Man Charles Scribner, III, 2015-02-19. Now for the first time in paperback. Scribner's classic biography and introduction to the wide range of works by the great Flemish Baroque master Peter Paul Rubens (1577-1640). Rubens is an artist's artist, known for his glowing painterly treatments of classical mythology and religious themes, and his stunning portraits and landscapes. His paintings, many commissioned by Europe's leading princes and prelates, adorn the walls of the world's greatest museums, from the Hermitage, Prado, and Louvre to the Metropolitan and National Gallery. Painters from Watteau to Delacroix to Cézanne and Matisse have looked to Rubens for inspiration. His prodigious output included easel paintings, tapestries, altarpieces, decorative ceilings, sculpture designs, and monuments for festivals; he was also a leading diplomat, knighted by the kings of England and Spain, an antiquarian, humanist, and amateur architect. In short, the Baroque fulfillment of the Renaissance man. This illuminating biographical study of Rubens and his time is accompanied by 80 illustrations of Rubens's work and comparative examples by other artists. The 43 color plates are each introduced by in-depth commentaries on the picture's context and meaning.

Portrait of Emperor Servius Sulpicius Galba Nils Büttner, 2021. Rubens Joost van der Auwera, 2007. Over the past four years, the Royal Fine Arts Museums of Belgium have undertaken a huge research project. Peter Paul Rubens, 1901. The Family Portraits of Peter Paul Rubens Olivia Nicole Guyodo, 2017. This thesis is concerned with the family portraits of the highly celebrated Flemish painter Peter Paul Rubens (1577-1640). Despite having received a great deal of fame for his highly dramatic history paintings and magnificent altarpieces, his career as a portrait painter has yet to be given the adequate attention it deserves. Within the genre of portraiture, Rubens's oeuvre is made up of a large number of works exceeding well over forty that depict those nearest and dearest to the artist. Throughout history, these particular works have gone relatively unnoticed. Whilst many of Rubens's family portraits are mentioned briefly in monographs dedicated to the artist, it was not until 2015, following the exhibition Rubens in Private, that these works finally received the attention they rightfully deserve. The focus of the exhibition was to place a great deal of emphasis on Rubens as a dedicated family man, a role he had yet to be recognised in. Bringing together and displaying many of the master's portraits of his loved ones, the exhibition achieved in celebrating Rubens for the very first time as not only a talented portraitist but also as that of a man deeply moved by his family and friends. Although Rubens's role as that of a dedicated husband and father will receive a great deal of attention within this study, it is not, however, the main premise of my argument. Rather, the emphasis of this thesis is on how the artist's family portraits transformed between the years 1609 and 1640. In particular, it is the way in which Rubens represented his two wives Isabella Brant 1591 1626 and Helena Fourment 1614 1673 and children which will be the primary concern of this study Without a doubt the context in which these works were executed in is essential and necessary in order to obtaining a greater understanding as to why they appear the way they do Thus much of this thesis is concerned with analyzing the paintings in terms of their size over all composition style colour as well as the themes Rubens displayed within each work This thesis aims to both acknowledge and celebrate the family portraits of the master as they are a group of extraordinary works that have been in my opinion received a relatively limited amount of attention throughout history In doing so I aim to shed a great deal of light on just how complex and not so traditional these works are Furthermore there will be a great deal of interest in how the context of the artists life not only affected his family portraits in terms of style and theme but also how they reflected the life of Rubens himself over the course of both of his marriages till his death
