- 1. In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.
- 2. The earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep; and the Spirit of God was moving over the face of the waters.
- 3. And God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light.
- 4. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness.
- 5. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, one day.
- 6. And God said, "Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters."
- 7. And God made the firmament, and separated the waters above the firmament from the waters below the firmament.
- 8. And God called the firmament Heaven.
- 9. And God said, "Let the waters under the firmament be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear."
- 10. And God called the dry land Earth, and the waters which were gathered together into seas. And God called the seas Oceans.
- 11. And God said, "Let the Earth bring forth living creatures after their kind, cattle and creeping things and beasts of the earth after their kind, and the beasts of the sea after their kind."
- 12. And God created the great whales, and every living creature that creepeth, and every beast of the earth after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the ground after its kind, and every beast of the sea after its kind.
- 13. And God said, "Let the Earth bring forth man in his own image, after the image of God created he him; male and female created he them."
- 14. And God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the Earth, and subdue it: for the Earth is given unto you, and ye shall have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowls of the air, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the ground."
- 15. And God said, "Behold, I have given you every herb that bringeth forth seed upon the Earth, and every tree which beareth fruit, the seed of which is in it, I have given it unto you."
- 16. And to the beasts of the Earth, and to every creeping thing that creepeth upon the ground, I have given every green herb for food."
- 17. And to man he gave every herb that bringeth forth seed upon the Earth, and every tree which beareth fruit, the seed of which is in it, for food."
- 18. And God said, "It is not good that man should be alone, I will make him an helpmeet unto him."

The Text of the Bible David S. New,2013-04-26

For 2000 years the Bible has provided evidence and witness for the beliefs of three major world religions Some consider the Bible dangerous while others have died for it but the response to the Bible is always passionate This book relates the story of such passions from the Roman Empire to the present It is a story primarily about individuals the drama of their lives woven into the tapestry of their times barbarian invasions Black Death Waldensian heresy the pageantry of medieval romance the debauchery of the medieval Vatican the spirit of the Renaissance the tradition of monk and scholar All of these historical currents influenced the text now corrupted and distorted and existing in a confusing number of versions This book tells how today's Bible came to be what it is and provides an understanding of the richness of its text

Medieval Images, Icons, and Illustrated English Literary Texts Maidie Hilmo,2019-10-30 The function of images in the major illustrated English poetic works from the Anglo Saxon period to the early fifteenth century is the primary concern of this book Hilmo argues that the illustrations have not been sufficiently understood because modern judgments about their artistic merit and fidelity to the literary texts have got in the way of a historical understanding of their function The author here proves that artists took their work seriously because images represented an invisible order of reality that they were familiar with the vernacular poems and that they were innovative in adapting existing iconographies to guide the ethical reading process of their audience To provide a theoretical basis for the understanding of early monuments artefacts and texts she examines patristic opinions on image making supported by the most authoritative modern sources Fresh emphasis is given to the iconic nature of medieval images from the time of the iconoclastic debates of the 8th and 9th centuries to the renewed anxiety of image making at the time of the Lollard attacks on images She offers an important revision of the reading of the Ruthwell Cross which changes radically the interpretation of the Cross as a whole Among the manuscripts examined here are the Caedmon Auchinleck Vernon and Pearl manuscripts Hilmo's thesis is not confined to overtly religious texts and images but deals also with historical writing such as Layamon's Brut and with poetry designed ostensibly for entertainment such as the Canterbury Tales This study convincingly demonstrates how the visual and the verbal interactively manifest the real text of each illustrated literary work The artistic elements place vernacular works within a larger iconographic framework in which human composition is seen to relate to the activities of the divine Author and Artificer Whether iconic or anti iconic in stance images by their nature were a potent means of influencing the way an English author's words accessible in the vernacular were thought about and understood within the context of the theology of the Incarnation that informed them and governed their aesthetic of spiritual function This is the first study to cover the range of illustrated English poems from the Anglo Saxon period to the early 15th century

Portraying the Land Rehav Rubin,2018-05-22 The book presents and discusses a large corpus of Jewish maps of the Holy Land that were drawn by Jewish scholars from the 11th to the 20th century and thus fills a significant lacuna both in the history of cartography and in Jewish studies The maps depict the biblical borders of the Holy Land the allotments of the tribes and the forty years of wanderings in the desert Most of these maps are in Hebrew although there are several in Yiddish Ladino and in European languages The book focuses on four aspects it presents an up to date corpus of known maps of various types and genres it suggests a classification of these maps according to their source shape and content it presents and analyses the main topics that were depicted in the maps and it puts the maps in their historical and cultural contexts both within the Jewish world and the sphere of European cartography of their time The book is an innovative contribution to the fields of history of cartography and Jewish studies It is written for both professional readers and the general public The Hebrew edition 2014 won the Izhak Ben Zvi Prize Europe in the Eleventh Century Charles West,2025-10-16 Eleventh century Europe was diverse and fast changing Historians have often debated this change through two sets of competing arguments one about the shifting role of the Church and the Papacy and the other about the rise of castellan lords and a proliferation in violence Yet these arguments about Church Reform and Feudal Revolution only really apply to one part of Europe the Latin West This book takes its cue from contemporary perceptions of Europe and includes Byzantium or East Rome and Muslim al Andalus in scope In doing so it presents a new perspective on Europe in the period Its chapters assess different scales of action and interaction within this wide space They take from the reader from the peasants living in small village settlements via the great city of Constantinople the taifa emirates kingdoms from Ireland to Hungary and the two universal empires up to contemporary ideas cosmologies and representations of the wider world Viewed in this broad setting the Latin West's remarkable expansion during this period dramatically illustrated by the First Crusade at the century's end can best be understood as the poorly controlled overspilling of internal dynamics as the established public order was disrupted. Elsewhere in Europe existing structures proved more resilient and better able to accommodate internal economic and social development though remaining vulnerable to aggression from outside. Think Like a Cartoonist Leigh Rubin, 2023-07-31

A Cyclopaedia of Biblical Literature. Edited by J. K. Illustrated by Numerous Engravings John Kitto, 1866 Byzantium and Islam

Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2012. This magnificent volume explores the epochal transformations and unexpected continuities in the Byzantine Empire from the 7th to the 9th century. At the beginning of the 7th century, the Empire's southern provinces, the vibrant, diverse areas of North Africa and the eastern Mediterranean, were at the crossroads of exchanges reaching from Spain to China. These regions experienced historic upheavals when their Christian and Jewish communities encountered the emerging Islamic world, and by the 9th century, an unprecedented cross-fertilization of cultures had taken place. This extraordinary age is brought vividly to life in insightful contributions by leading international scholars, accompanied by sumptuous illustrations of the period's most notable arts and artifacts. Resplendent images of authority, religion, and trade embodied in precious metals, brilliant textiles, fine ivories, elaborate mosaics, manuscripts, and icons, many of them never before published, highlight the dynamic dialogue between the rich array of Byzantine styles and the newly forming Islamic aesthetic. With its masterful exploration of two centuries that would shape the emerging medieval world, this illuminating publication provides a unique interpretation of a period that still resonates today.

The Bible in Worship Victoria Raymer, 2017-10-30. Biblical proclamation is central to Christian worship. The Bible witnesses to the foundational experiences of the Church. Its proclamation invites worshippers into encounter with Christ, the living Word. The Bible in Worship seeks to make visible how the Bible is encountered in the worship of mainstream Western churches Focusing in turn on the Roman Catholic Reformed and Anglican traditions Victoria Raymer offers a detailed and lively consideration of the contemporary practices of proclamation in each considers their respective patterns of reading the Bible as part of public worship and reflects on the place the Bible takes in daily prayer Raymer also draws our attention towards the role the psalms play in contemporary formal liturgy and offers a chapter on how the Bible is weaved into less formal forms of worship including contemporary sung worship Offering a truly holistic study of the scripture in worship the book will resource readers to reflect on how proclamation invites response in understanding and resolve and to consider how it might do so more effectively
