bibliographical source now available on this major medieval author Chr tien de Troyes bequeathed a corpus of highly original and widely influential Arthurian romances Indeed his direct or indirect influence continued throughout the middle ages and beyond into modern times The Bibliographypermits students of medieval romance to quickly identify the areas in which Chr tien scholarship has been active Items are listed under twenty two topics with numerous sub sections under each topic and cross references for items that treat more than one of the topics The broad geographic and linguistic scope of modern Chr tien studies is evident in items not only from western Europe and North America but also from the growing body of medieval scholarship in eastern Europe Asia Africa South America and Australasia To ensure accuracy and completeness the editor has been assisted by scholars competent in the many languages in which Chr tien studies are now published most notably in Japanese Welsh Rumanian Hungarian and Polish as well as by other scholars and librarians who generously provided assistance and information in finding items difficult to access The Lais of Marie de France Marie de France,1999-06-01

The leading edition of the work of the earliest known French woman poet the subject of Lauren Groff s bestselling novel Matrix Marie de France fl late twelfth century is the earliest known French woman poet and her lais stories in verse based on Breton tales of chivalry and romance are among the finest of the genre Recounting the trials and tribulations of lovers the lais inhabit a powerfully realized world where very real human protagonists act out their lives against fairy tale elements of magical beings potions and beasts De France takes a subtle and complex view of courtly love whether telling the story of the knight who betrays his fairy mistress or describing the noblewoman who embroiders her sad tale on the shroud for a nightingale killed by a jealous and suspicious husband For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators The Literary Subversions of Medieval Women Jane Chance,2007-08-06 This study of medieval women as postcolonial writers defines the literary strategies of subversion by which they authorized their alterity within the dominant tradition To dismantle a colonizing culture they made public the private feminine space allocated by gender difference they constructed unhomely spaces They inverted gender roles of characters to valorize the female they created alternate idealized feminist societies and cultures or utopias through fantasy and they legitimized female triviality the homely female space to provide autonomy While these methodologies often overlapped in practice they illustrate how cultures impinge on languages to create what Deleuze and Guattari have identified as a minor literature specifically for women as dis placed Women writers discussed include Hrotsvit of Gandersheim Hildegard of Bingen Marie de France Marguerite Porete Catherine of Siena Margery Kempe Julian of Norwich and Christine de Pizan The Old French Tristan

Poems David J. Shirt,1980 Published by Boydell Brewer Inc The Arthur of the French ,2020-10-15 This major reference work is the fourth volume in the series Arthurian Literature in the Middle Ages. Its intention is to update the French and Occitan chapters in R S Loomis Arthurian Literature in the Middle Ages: A Collaborative History (Oxford 1959) and to provide a volume which will serve the needs of students and scholars of Arthurian literature. The principal focus is the production, dissemination and evolution of Arthurian material in French and Occitan from the twelfth to the fifteenth century. Beginning with a substantial overview of Arthurian manuscripts, the volume covers writing in both verse: Wace the Tristan legend, Chrétien de Troyes and the Grail Continuations, Marie de France and the anonymous lays, the lesser known romances and prose: the Vulgate Cycle, the prose Tristan, the Post Vulgate Roman du Graal etc.

The Old French Fabliaux Anne Elizabeth Cobby, 2009. Concise accounts of editions and studies of the Old French fabliaux. The Old French fabliaux form a corpus of over 120 short comic verse narratives from the late twelfth to the early fourteenth centuries which has been the subject of very active work over the last thirty years, building on continuous though less intensive interest over the previous century. There are many editions, a society and a journal devoted to fabliaux study, but until now no bibliographical survey. The author of this analytical bibliography takes a wide view of the definition of the genre in French but does not include work primarily on Chaucerian fabliaux or those in other languages. Around 1 000 entries offer precise, well judged and well written accounts of works published in this area of study.

ANNE COBBY is Librarian of the Faculty of Modern Medieval Languages at the University of Cambridge.
