

Jurisprudential Inquiry Model of Teaching: A Steam of Education for Enhancing Social Maturity Among High School Students

Dr. Jasmeet kaur Tandon<sup>1</sup>, Tariq Hider Mir<sup>2*</sup>

ABSTRACT

Teaching is an art as well as Science it is not everybody's cup of tea. It is a mechanical process which develops all round development of child. The traditional teaching which was teacher centered and full of loopholes and contradiction, it was autocratic in nature. This study is based on Jurisprudential Inquiry Model of teaching and Social Maturity the Sample consisted of 30 Students by using Random Sampling Technique and data was collected by using Social competency scale of Dr. V.P Sharma, Dr. Prabha Shukla and Dr. Kiran Shukla. The objective of the study was i) To compare the mean Scores of Social Maturity of students at pre and post test level when taught through Jurisprudential Inquiry Model of teaching. The Hypothesis of the study was i) There is no significant difference in the mean Scores of Social Maturity of students at pre and post test level when taught through Jurisprudential Inquiry Model of teaching. The Statistical Techniques used was paired sample t. test. Before proceeding for the parametric test the assumption of the paired t test were tested. The findings of the study was that teaching through Jurisprudential Inquiry Model of teaching helped in developing Social Maturity among the students.

Experts in the field of education all over the world are seriously thinking about variety of approaches for teaching to achieve different instructional objectives. At present we may require a number of ways to create the right environment for teaching and learning. Present trend indicates that education is changing day by day due to changes taken place in global scenario, the traditional system of teaching which was teacher centered has been changed and they are outdated and no longer valid. There is much need that while teaching learning process the teacher should create such type of platform where Social Maturity would be developed among the students, before COVID 19 the teaching learning process was different but in present scenario new strategies, methods techniques should be adopted to improve Social Maturity among the students during teaching learning process. According to NPE 2020 in teaching learning process such subjects should be introduced which should be related to society so that students will be socially mature. For the improvement in teaching learning process teacher can use Models of teaching in classroom, these models not only helps academic
