May Her Likes Be Multiplied:

May Her Likes Be Multiplied Marilyn Booth, 2001-07-30 A history of women in Egyptian society as seen through the lens of prescriptive biographies of famous women published in popular magazines and directed to a female audience Making Women's Histories Pamela S. Nadell, Kate Haulman, 2013-01-07 Examines how women's histories are explored and explained around the world Making Women's Histories showcases the transformations that the intellectual and political production of women's history has engendered across time and space It considers the difference women's and gender history has made to and within national fields of study and to what extent the wider historiography has integrated this new knowledge What are the accomplishments of women's and gender history What are its shortcomings What is its future The contributors discuss their discovery of women's histories the multiple turns the field has taken and how place affected the course of this scholarship Noted scholars of women's and gender history they stand atop such historiographically defined vantage points as Tsarist Russia the British Empire in Egypt and India Qing dynasty China and the U S roiling through the 1960s From these and other peaks they gaze out at the world around them surveying trajectories in the creation of women's histories in recent and distant pasts and envisioning their futures Egypt Awakening in the Early Twentieth Century B.

Khaldi, 2012-12-23 Through a detailed study of Mayy Ziyah's literary salon Boutheina Khaldi sheds light on salon and epistolary culture in early twentieth century Egypt and its role in Egypt's Nahdah Awakening Bringing together history women's studies Arabic literature post colonial literature and media studies she highlights the important and previously little discussed contribution of Arabic women to the project of modernity Remaking Women Lila Abu-Lughod, 1998-07-01 Contrary to popular perceptions newly veiled women across the Middle East are just as much products and symbols of modernity as the upper and middle class women who courageously took off the veil almost a century ago To make this point these essays focus on the woman question in the Middle East most particularly in Egypt and Iran especially at the turn of the century when gender became a highly charged nationalist issue tied up in complex ways with the West The last two decades have witnessed an extraordinary burst of energy and richness in Middle East women's studies and the contributors to this volume exemplify the vitality of this new thinking They take up issues of concern to historians and social thinkers working on the postcolonial world The essays challenge the assumptions of other major works on women and feminism in the Middle East by questioning among other things the familiar dichotomy in which women's domesticity is associated with tradition and modernity with their entry into the public sphere Indeed Remaking Women is a radical challenge to any easy equation of modernity with progress emancipation and the empowerment of women The contributors are Lila Abu Lughod Marilyn Booth Deniz Kandiyoti Khaled Fahmy Mervat Hatem Afsaneh Najmabadi Omnia Shakry and Zohreh T Sullivan The book is introduced by the editor with a piece called Feminist Longings and Postcolonial Conditions which masterfully interfaces the critical studies of feminism and modernism with scholarship on South Asia and the Middle East The Making of the Arab

Intellectual Dyala Hamzah, 2012-11-27 In the wake of the Ottoman Empire's nineteenth century reforms as guilds waned and new professions emerged the scholarly estate underwent social differentiation Some found employment in the state's new institutions as translators teachers and editors whilst others resisted civil servant status Gradually the scholar morphed into the public writer Despite his fledgling status he catered for the public interest all the more so since new professionals such as doctors engineers and lawyers endorsed this latest social role as an integral part of their own self image This dual preoccupation with self definition and all things public is the central concern of this book Focusing on the period after the tax farming scholar took the bow and before the alienated intellectual prevailed on the contemporary Arab cultural scene it situates the making of the Arab intellectual within the dysfunctional space of competing states interests known as the Nahda Located between Empire and Colony the emerging Arab public sphere was a space of over and under regulation hindering accountability and upsetting allegiances The communities that Arab intellectuals imagined including the Pan Islamic Pan Arab and socialist sat astride many a polity and never became contained by post colonial states Examining a range of canonical and less canonical authors this interdisciplinary approach to The Making of the Modern Arab Intellectual will be of interest to students and scholars of the Middle East history political science comparative literature and philosophy

The Career and Communities of Zaynab Fawwaz Marilyn Booth, 2021-11-05 Zaynab Fawwaz d 1914 emerged from an obscure childhood in the Shi'i community of Jabal Amil now Lebanon to become a recognized writer on women's and girls aspirations and rights in 1890s Egypt This book insists on the centrality of gender as a marker of social difference to the Arabic knowledge movement then or Nahda Fawwaz published essays and engaged in debates in the Egyptian and Ottoman Arabic press published two novels and the first play known to have been composed in Arabic by a female writer This book assesses her unusual life history and political engagements including her work late in life as an informant for the Egyptian khedive A series of thematically focused chapters takes up her views on social justice marriage divorce and polygyny the gender nature debate in the context of local understandings of Darwinism education and imperialism and Islamophobia attending also to works by those to whom Fawwaz was responding Her role in the first Arabic women's magazine and her contributions to later women's magazines are part of the story too Further chapters consider her uses of history in fiction to criticize patriarchal control of young women's lives and her play as an intervention into reformist theatre and the question of women's access to public culture in 1890s Egypt Questions of desirable masculinities are central to all of these Fawwaz was also known for her massive biographical dictionary of world women In that work as in her essays Fawwaz articulated an ethics of social belonging and sociality predicated on Islamic precepts of gender justice and critical of the ways male intellectuals had used tradition to silence women and deny their aspirations

Popular Fiction, Translation and the Nahda in Egypt Samah Selim, 2019-07-01 This book is a critical study of the translation and adaptation of popular fiction into Arabic at the turn of the twentieth century It examines the ways in which the Egyptian nahda discourse with its emphasis on identity authenticity and renaissance suppressed various forms of cultural and literary creation emerging from the encounter with European genres as well as indigenous popular literary forms and languages The book explores the multiple and fluid translation practices of this period as a form of unauthorized translation that was not invested in upholding nationalist binaries of originality and imitation Instead translators experimented with radical and complex forms of adaptation that turned these binaries upside down Through a series of close readings of novels published in the periodical The People's Entertainments the book explores the nineteenth century literary intellectual juridical and economic histories that are constituted through translation and outlines a comparative method of reading that pays particular attention to the circulation of genre across national borders

Medicine and Morality in Egypt Sherry Sayed Gadelrab, 2016-01-22 In Middle Eastern and Islamic societies the politics of sexual knowledge is a delicate and often controversial subject Sherry Sayed Gadelrab focuses on nineteenth and early twentieth century Egypt claiming that during this period there was a perceptible shift in the medical discourse surrounding conceptualisations of sex differences and the construction of sexuality Medical authorities began to promote theories that suggested men's innate active sexuality as opposed to women's more passive characteristics interpreting the differences in female and male bodies to correspond to this hierarchy Through examining the interconnection of medical legal religious and moral discourses on sexual behaviour Gadelrab highlights the association between sex sexuality and the creation and recreation of the concept of gender at this crucial moment in the development of Egyptian society By analysing the debates at the time surrounding science medicine morality modernity and sexuality she paints a nuanced picture of the Egyptian understanding and manipulation of the concepts of sex and gender

Autobiography and the Construction of Identity and Community in the Middle East NA NA, 2016-04-30 Ranging from the early modern period to the present day this edited collection uses biography as a window into the history of the Arab Islamic Middle East The contributors reinterpret the lives of the famous such as George Antonius and Doria Shafiq and rediscover the lives of individuals previously consigned to the margins of history including the notorious individuals of 17th century Syria and the 20th century Palestinian activist Kulthum Auda The book also draws on the biographical tradition of Arab historical writing including biographical dictionaries for an understanding of the region's social and cultural history Interdisciplinary in scope and theoretically informed this volume brings to light individual lives which are essential to an understanding of Middle Eastern history

Soft Force Ellen Anne McLarney, 2015-05-26 The unheralded contribution of women to Egypt's Islamist movement and how they talk about women's rights in Islamic terms In the decades leading up to the Arab Spring in 2011 when Hosni Mubarak's authoritarian regime was swept from power in Egypt Muslim women took a leading role in developing a robust Islamist presence in the country's public sphere Soft Force examines the writings and activism of these women including scholars preachers journalists critics actors and public intellectuals who envisioned an Islamic awakening in which women's rights and the family equality and emancipation were at the center Challenging

Western conceptions of Muslim women as being oppressed by Islam Ellen McLarney shows how women used soft force a women s jihad characterized by nonviolent protest to oppose secular dictatorship and articulate a public sphere that was both Islamic and democratic McLarney draws on memoirs political essays sermons newspaper articles and other writings to explore how these women imagined the home and the family as sites of the free practice of religion in a climate where Islamists were under siege by the secular state While they seem to reinforce women s traditional roles in a male dominated society these Islamist writers also reoriented Islamist politics in domains coded as feminine putting women at the very forefront in imagining an Islamic polity Bold and insightful Soft Force transforms our understanding of women s rights women s liberation and women s equality in Egypt s Islamic revival

Disciples Of Passion Hudá Barakāt,2005 Disciples of Passion chronicles the civil war in Lebanon through the troubled and sometimes quasi hallucinatory mind of a young man who has experienced kidnapping hostage exchange and hospital internment As he recalls his village childhood and recounts his relationship with a woman of a different faith his fragmented narrative probes the uncertainties of political testimonial and ascriptions of responsibility in wartime Marilyn Booth s fluid translation brings to an English audience one of the Arabic language s finest contemporary novelists Widely celebrated in France where she currently lives in exile from Lebanon Hoda Barakat writes from personal experience her novels focus on the civil war in Lebanon and how it shaped the lives of people marginalized by the conflict Compelling scenarios of war and its aftermath of suffering and destruction are integrated into subtle psychological portraits with protagonists often propelled into unexpected action

Religion, the Secular, and the Politics of Sexual Difference Linell E. Cady, Tracy Fessenden, 2013-11-12 Global struggles over women s roles rights and dress have taken center stage in a drama that casts the secular and the religious in tense if not violent opposition Advocates for equality speak of the issue in terms of rights and modern progress while reactionaries ground their authority in religious and scriptural appeals Both sides presume women s emancipation is tied to secularization This volume upsets these certainties by blending diverse voices and traditions both secular and religious in studies historicizing questioning and testing the implicit links between secularism and expanded freedoms for women Rather than treat secularism as the answer to conflicts over gender and sexuality these essays show how it structures the conditions generating them
