Gates, 2002-04 From the late eighteenth to the early twentieth century hundreds of British women wrote about and drew from nature Some like the beloved children s author Beatrix Potter who produced natural history about hedgehogs as well as fiction about rabbits are still familiar today But others have all but disappeared from view Barbara Gates recovers these lost works and prints them alongside little known pieces by more famous authors like Potter s field notes on hedgehogs reminding us of better known stories that help set the others in context The works contained in this volume are as varied as the women who produced them They include passionate essays on the protection of animals vivid accounts of travel and adventure from the English seashore to the Indian Alps poetry and fiction and marvelous tales of nature for children Special features of the book include a detailed chronology placing each selection in its historical and literary context biographical sketches of each author s life and works a comprehensive bibliography of primary and secondary literature and over sixty illustrations An ideal introduction to women s powerful and diverse responses to the natural world In Nature s Name will be treasured by anyone interested in natural history women or Victorian and Edwardian Britain Birds and Nature , 1902 Appraisal , 1974 Nature, Color Illustrations Vol.4 Various, 2016-08-03
