Nautical Research Journal ,2005 A Guide to the Sources of British Military History Robin Higham,2015-10-05
Designed to fill an overlooked gap this book originally published in 1972 provides a single unified introduction to bibliographical sources of British military history Moreover it includes guidance in a number of fields in which no similar source is available at all giving information on how to obtain access to special collections and private archives and links military history especially during peacetime with the development of science and technology Catalog of Printed Books of the Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, D.C. Folger Shakespeare Library,1970 The Nautical Magazine and Naval Chronicle... a Journal of Papers on Subjects Connected with Maritime Affairs , Subject Index to Periodicals ,2008 Fairplay Weekly Shipping Journal ,1932 American Journal Of Science Anonymous,1870 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Nautical Research Journal, Index of John M. Barry,1996-01-01 Letters and Papers of Professor Sir John Knox Laughton, 1830-1915 Andrew Lambert,2019-08-15 Traces the academic career of one of the most important figures instrumental in the foundation of the Navy Records Society Detailing the academic career of Sir John Knox Laughton this book shows how Laughton operated in his profession the stages of his career his patrons friends and colleagues how he exerted influence and recruited followers and how far he succeeded in the tasks he set himself Born in 1830 he entered the Royal Navy as an Instructor in 1853 then having served afloat in the Baltic Campaigns of 1854 and 1855 and in the Second China War of 1856 58 he came ashore to teach at the Royal Naval College at Portsmouth in 1866 There he wrote important textbooks on oceanography and hydrographic surveying but his most significant contribution was to demonstrate the vital role of the past as the basis for the development of contemporary naval thought culminating in the publication of his seminal Essay on Naval Tactics in 1873 The material in this volume all dates from after 1875 following the College's move to the old Hospital complex at Greenwich in 1873 which gave Laughton access to a wider audience in London notably as the College's official academic spokesman at the United Services Institution It was his 1874 Royal United Services Institution Lecture The Scientific Study of Naval History which established history as the basis for doctrine development and secured a place for the subject in the Naval College curriculum Laughton left the College in 1885 to become Professor of Modern History at King's College London where he made a significant contribution to the professionalisation of English history as well as writing more than 900 lives virtually the entire naval component for the Dictionary of National Biography The audience for his lectures articles and books included the entire officer corps of the Royal Navy of his day together with army officers defence analysts and major American thinkers such as Admiral Stephen Luce and Captain Alfred T Mahan the last two being two of the most frequently represented correspondents in this volume Laughton and Mahan worked together for two decades to advance the cause of naval education strategic thought and history Edited by his biographer the first Laughton Professor of Naval History at King's College London the papers are grouped chronologically into six chapters The Scientific Study of Naval History 1875-85 Professor of Modern History 1885-90 The Navy Records Society 1891-95 Fighting for Nelson 1896-1900 Working to the End 1901-15 and Laughton's Unfinished Naval History of England They show how Laughton in a career extending from the Crimean War to the First World War advanced naval history as a fundamental intellectual resource for two great navies and laid the foundations for its present place at the heart of the historical profession The Athenaeum, 1847
