History for the IB Diploma Paper 2 Authoritarian States (20th Century) Allan Todd, Sally Waller, 2015-09-10 This course book covers Paper 2 World History Topic 10 Authoritarian states 20th century of the History for the International Baccalaureate IB Diploma syllabus for the first assessment in 2017 Written by experience IB history examiners and teachers it offers authoritative and engaging guidance through the topic to help student s explore the emergence of authoritarian states consolidation and maintenance of power of these states and the aims and results of authoritarian state policies

The Victims of Slavery, Colonization and the Holocaust Kitty Millet, 2017-03-09 This book provides a sophisticated investigation into the experience of being exterminated as felt by victims of the Holocaust and compares and contrasts this analysis with the experiences of people who have been colonized or enslaved Using numerous victim accounts and a wide range of primary sources the book moves away from the continuity thesis with its insistence on colonial intent as the reason for victimization in relation to other historical examples of mass political violence to look at the victim experience on its own terms By affording each constituent case study its own distinctive aspects The Victims of Slavery Colonization and the Holocaust allows for a more enriching comparison of victim experience to be made that respects each group of victims in their uniqueness It is an important innovative volume for all students of the Holocaust genocide and the history of mass political violence

'Law, Not War' Federica D'Alessandra, 2018-02-06 Red Orchestra Anne Nelson, 2023-08-24 For years the history of the anti-Nazi resistance in Germany was hidden and distorted by Cold War politics Providing a much needed corrective Red Orchestra presents the dramatic story of a circle of German citizens who opposed Hitler from the start choosing to stay in Germany to resist Nazism and help its victims The book shines a light on this critical movement which was made up of academics theatre people and factory workers Protestants Catholics and Jews around 150 Germans all told and from all walks of life Drawing on archives memoirs and interviews with survivors award winning scholar and journalist

Anne Nelson presents a compelling portrait of the men and women involved and the terrifying day to day decisions in their lives from the Nazi takeover in 1933 to their Gestapo arrest in 1942 Nelson traces the story of the Red Orchestra Rote Kapelle resistance movement within the context of German history showing the stages of the Nazi movement and regime from the 1920s to the end of the Second World War She also constructs the narrative around the life of Greta Kuckhoff and other female figures whose role in the anti Nazi resistance fight is too often unrecognised or under appreciated This revised edition includes A new introduction which explores elements of the Red Orchestra s experience that resonate with our times including the impact of new media technologies the dangers of political polarization and the way the judiciary can be shaped to further the ends of autocracy The introduction will also address the long standing misconception that the German Resistance only took action when it was clear that Germany was losing the war Historiographic updates throughout the book which take account of recent literature and additional archival sources
