Oxbridge Blues and Other Stories Frederic Raphael,1984 Oxbridge Blues Frederic Raphael,1984 Oxbridge Blues, and Other Plays for Television Frederic Raphael,1984-01 Gerald Howard-Smith and the 'Lost Generation' of Late Victorian and Edwardian England John Benson,2016-11-18

Gerald Howard Smith's life is intriguing both in its own right and as a vehicle for exploring the world in which he lived. Tall, boisterous and sometimes rather irascible, he was one of the so-called Lost Generation whose lives were cut short by the First World War. Brought up in London and educated at Eton and Cambridge, he excelled both at cricket and athletics. After qualifying as a solicitor, he moved to Wolverhampton and threw himself into the local sporting scene, making a considerable name for himself in the years before the First World War. Volunteering for military service in 1914, he was decorated for bravery before being killed in action two years later. Reporting his death, the War History of the South Staffordshire Regiment claimed that in his men's eyes he lived as a loose-limbed hero and in him they lost a very humorous and a very gallant gentleman. As well as telling the fascinating story of Gerald Howard Smith, for the first time this important new biography explores such complex and important issues as childhood and adolescence, class relations, sporting achievement, manliness and masculinity, metropolitan and provincial relationships and forms of commemoration. It will therefore be of interest to educationalists, sports historians, local and regional historians and those interested in class, gender and civilian-military relations. Indeed, all those seeking to understand the economic, social and cultural life of late nineteenth and early twentieth-century Britain.

The Meritocracy Party Michael Faust,2013-02-08

The Meritocracy Party campaigns to replace democracy with meritocracy. Democracy has become the single biggest obstacle to the rise of the most meritorious. In the USA, no matter your talents, you cannot become President unless you have access to vast wealth to fund your campaign. In Great Britain, social mobility, the opportunity to improve your social standing, has gone into steep reverse. If you are born into a poor family, you are statistically almost certain to remain poor regardless of your merits. If your parents are rich, you can start looking forward to a prosperous future again regardless of your merits. The Meritocracy Party seeks to remove the link between parental wealth and children's outcomes in life and to eradicate nepotism and cronyism, the dual drivers of privilege. The Meritocracy Party is viral. The world can be changed by conversation among intelligent people.
