Pictorial History Of Smoke Jumping:

A Pictorial History of Smokejumping Stan Cohen, 1983 Fire Management Notes, 1988 Smoke Jumping on the Western Fire Line Mark Matthews, 2006 The story of the World War II conscientious objectors who volunteered for Civilian Public Service as U S Forest Service smoke jumpers is told in this history that reveals a little known dimension of American pacifism Courage Has No Color, The True Story of the Triple Nickles Tanya Lee Stone, 2013-01-22 They became America's first black paratroopers Why was their story never told Sibert Medalist Tanya Lee Stone reveals the history of the Triple Nickles during World War II World War II is raging and thousands of American soldiers are fighting overseas against the injustices brought on by Hitler Back on the home front the injustice of discrimination against African Americans plays out as much on Main Street as in the military Enlisted black men are segregated from white soldiers and regularly relegated to service duties At Fort Benning Georgia First Sergeant Walter Morris's men serve as guards at The Parachute School while the white soldiers prepare to be paratroopers Morris knows that for his men to be treated like soldiers they have to train and act like them but would the military elite and politicians recognize the potential of these men as well as their passion for serving their country Tanya Lee Stone examines the role of African Americans in the military through the history of the Triple Nickles America's first black paratroopers who fought in a little known attack on the American West by the Japanese The 555th Parachute Infantry Battalion in the words of Morris proved that the color of a man had nothing to do with his ability From Courage Has No Color What did it take to be a paratrooper in World War II Specialized training extreme physical fitness courage and until the 555th Parachute Infantry Battalion the Triple Nickles was formed white skin It is 1943 Americans are overseas fighting World War II to help keep the world safe from Adolf Hitler's tyranny safe from injustice safe from discrimination Yet right here at home people with white skin have rights that people with black skin do not What is courage What is strength Perhaps it is being ready to fight for your nation even when your nation isn't ready to fight for you Front matter includes a foreword by Ashley Bryan Back matter includes an author's note an appendix a time line source notes and a bibliography The Forest Service Gerald W. Williams, 2006-11-30 Established in 1905 The Forest Service is steeped in history conflict strong personalities including Theodore Roosevelt and Gifford Pinchot and the challenges of managing 193 million acres of national forests and grasslands This unique federal agency is one that combines forest management with wildlife fish recreation mining grazing and hundreds of other uses It operates in the midst of controversy and change The original intent was to protect the public forests protect the water supplies and when appropriate provide timber Much has changed over the last 100 years including many new laws but the fact that these lands are still fought over today shows the foresight of politicians foresters scientists and communities This work brings to light the many and varied activities of the agency that many people know little about in a world that is constantly changing Written by a former Forest Service national historian topics discussed in the work include wilderness and the Wilderness Act of 1964 recreation battles and interagency rivalry with the National Park Service timber management including clearcutting ecosystem management roadless area and controversies over RARE and RARE II studies fish and wildlife management including endangered species before and after the Endangered Species Act of 1973 and mining and the General Mining Act of 1872 It also discusses the future challenges forest fires water protection and restoration recreation involving the public and fish and wildlife
