

PILGRIMAGE

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a coastal landscape. In the foreground and middle ground, there are steep, eroded cliffs made of reddish-brown rock. Patches of green, low-lying shrubs and grasses are scattered across the rocky terrain. In the background, a calm blue body of water stretches to the horizon under a clear sky.

Pilgrimage Mary Durack, 2000 With vivid and passionate descriptions of her beloved outback Mary Durack brings alive the spirit of our country and those who have shaped it Pilgrimage is an unforgettable journey through the vibrant landscape and life of Mary Durack from her early writings in the 1930s through to the mid 1980s Though best known for two family histories that have become literary classics Kings in Grass Castles and Sons in the Saddle Mary Durack's great talent extended to fiction short stories drama and verse This long awaited collection of her favourite works including material never before published provides a rare glimpse into Mary's extraordinary experiences from her Kimberley days on the family properties and her time with her own family in Broome to her city home in Perth Mary writes with insight compassion and humour of outback legends and the many bush characters whom she knew and loved of their far reaching wisdom and struggle to adapt to a changing land Pilgrimage is an enduring record of a way of life that is fast disappearing and a testament to an exceptional writer In the early 90s before her death Mary started work on this collection and in fact drafted a proposed introduction Mary's thoughts have been respected by her daughter Patsy who along with Patsy's daughter Naomi has continued this project but Patsy has also included a few more controversial pieces that her mother might have left out The pieces include the oft anthologised 3 000 word chapter known as Promised Land from Kings in Grass Castles and a celebrated chapter from her recently reissued novel Keep Him My Country An added bonus is the inclusion of a complete bibliography of Mary's work as well as a number of her poems which will be of interest to Durack scholars and fans This volume will appeal to lovers of Australiana the Kimberley the Durack saga and Mary's writing Inevitably she touches on the respect and compassion she has for aboriginal culture and her belief in aboriginal land rights an aspect which gives added interest today The writings are also a great snapshot of a former time

Conolly, 2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide

Inseparable Elements Patsy Millett, 2021-11-02 Dame Mary Durack Miller was born into a pastoral legacy that made her name famous even before she became one of Australia's most popular literary doyennes of the 20th century Best known for her history of the Durack family Kings in Grass Castles Dame Mary was married to aviation pioneer Horrie Miller and was a sibling to the artist Elizabeth Durack Among the multifarious threads woven into her life she became a friend and confidant to many celebrated writers actors and artists Drawing on a great accumulation of first hand sources principally her mother's diaries and correspondence Patsy Millett's book is about a well known family who saw their prospects as blighted. Written from the unique perspective of someone born into the wash up of the Durack dynasty Patsy says her account will be controversial as the reality behind the generally accepted facts has never been told. Millett's story is unflinching. Her sharp insightful prose and acerbic wit create an intimate portrait of an extraordinary writer whose family life was filled with triumph and tragedy. True North Brenda Niall, 2012-03-21 Through war love affairs children and old age the Duracks' creative lives were always shaped by the enduring power of the Kimberley region. With unprecedented access to hundreds of private family letters unpublished memoirs diaries and papers Brenda Niall gets to the heart of a uniquely Australian story.

Australian Writers, 1915-1950 Selina Samuels, 2002 The starting date for this volume is central to Australia's self definition it is the year of the most famous battle in Australian military history Gallipoli during World War I. It marked the first time that Australians fought as a nation rather than part of the British military and the Gallipoli campaign has come to signify a legendary image of the Australian character one who is brave in the face of danger stoic in adversity and loyal to one's comrades. Australian Dictionary of Biography, Volume 19 Melanie Nolan, 2021-03-09 Volume 19 of the Australian Dictionary of Biography ADB contains concise biographies of individuals who died between 1991 and 1995. The first of two volumes for the 1990s it presents a colourful montage of late twentieth century Australian life containing the biographies of significant and representative Australians. The volume is still in the shadow of World War II with servicemen and women who enlisted young appearing but these influences are dimming and there are now increasing numbers of non white non male non privileged and non straight subjects. The 680 individuals recorded in volume 19 of the ADB include Wiradjuri midwife and Nggunawal Elder Violet Bulger Aboriginal rights activist poet playwright and artist Kevin Gilbert and Torres Strait Islander community leader and land rights campaigner Eddie Mabo HIV AIDS child activists Tony Lovegrove and Eve Van Graffhorst have entries as does conductor Stuart Challender the first Australian celebrity to go public about his HIV AIDS condition in 1991. The arts are as always well represented including writers Frank Hardy Mary Durack and Nene Gare actors Frank Thring and Leonard Teale and arts patron Ian Potter. We are beginning to see the effects of the steep rise in postwar immigration flow through to the ADB. Artist Joseph Stanislaw Ostojka Kotkowski was born in Poland. Pilar Moreno de Otaegui co founded the Spanish Club of Sydney. Chinese restaurateur and community leader Ming Poon Dick Low migrated to Victoria in 1953. Often we have a dearth of information about the domestic lives of our subjects. Politician Olive Zakharov however bravely disclosed at the Victorian launch of the federal government's campaign to Stop Violence Against Women in 1993 that she was a survivor of domestic violence in her second marriage. Take a dip into the many fascinating lives of the Australian Dictionary of Biography. American Book Publishing Record, 2000-07 Australian Book Review, 2000 Book Review Index, 2003 Vols 8-10 of the 1965-1984 master cumulation constitute a title index.
