men and live happily ever after still others found themselves in desperate situations that robbed them of their youth and sometimes their lives Desperate to strike it rich during the Gold Rush men sacrificed many creature comforts Only after they arrived did some of them realize how much they missed female companionship One way for men living on the frontier to meet women was through subscriptions to heart and hand clubs The men received newspapers with information and sometimes photographs about women with whom they corresponded Eventually a man might convince a woman to join him in the West and in matrimony Social status political connections money companionship or security were often considered more than love in these arrangements
