This volume is a special treat for Lewis Carroll fans. Dame Darcy puts her unmistakable stamp on what else the Alice books in a new 16-page tour de force while a dozen other artists present their versions of the most famous characters and moments from Wonderland. There's also a gorgeous silhouetted telling of Jabberwocky and Mahendra's Singh's surrealist take on The Hunting of the Snark. Curveballs in this volume include fairy tales illustrated by the untameable S. Clay Wilson, a fiery speech from freed slave Frederick Douglass rendered in stark black and white by Seth Tobocman, a letter on reincarnation from Flaubert, the Victorian erotic classic Venus in Furs, the drug classic The Hasheesh Eater, and silk-screened illustrations for the ghastly children's classic Der Struwwelpeter. Among many other canonical works.

Headpress, Outlaws, Rebels, Freethinkers, and Pirates Bob Levin, 2005-04-06 Bob Levin explores the byways and back roads of creative genius in an offbeat collection of characters as are likely to be found outside a carnival midway. Serious, dedicated, often driven by the hounds of Hell, these artists pursue often off-putting, always fascinating visions without regard to popular acclaim or financial reward. Levin's profile essay style is a unique blend of pooched journalism, quasi-autobiography, faux cultural history, and semi-scholarship, and the perfect vehicle by which to engage these beyond-the-box personalities. And from these engagements he fashions powerful arguments for the value of unfettered expression, no matter how far outside the mainstream it may issue. Levin, an author and attorney, lives in Berkeley, California, with his wife Adele, his frequent collaborator. He is a long-time contributing writer to The Comics Journal, where all of these pieces previously appeared. His last book, The Pirates: the Mouse, Disney's War Against the Counterculture, was hailed by critics as masterful, passionate, elegant, charming, twice thoughtful, and hilarious. Essay subjects include Chester Brown, S. Clay Wilson, Dori Seda, B. N. Duncan, Justin Green, Maxon Crumb, Crockett Johnson, Roy Lichtenstein, Graham Ingels, Jack Katz, Rory Hayes, and more.

The ten volumes in this series, covering all regions of the world, constitute the

These writers are not just storytellers but visionaries who collectively paint a multifaceted picture of humanity at the brink. They belonged to and were influenced by a range of historical, cultural, and literary movements, from the romanticism and transcendentalism of the 19th century to the early 20th century's modernism and the budding science fiction genre. Their combined works offer a historical capsule of societal anxieties and hopes, reflecting on themes of human resilience, the abuse of technology, and the moral dilemmas of progress.

It offers an unparalleled opportunity to traverse the vast landscapes of apocalyptic fiction through the eyes of some of the most influential authors in literary history. Readers are invited to witness the end of worlds not just as an exercise in literary exploration but as a mirror to our collective psyche across generations.
