Naturalist Fiction The Entropic Vision:

Naturalist Fiction David Baguley, 1990 This is the first major study of naturalist fiction as a distinct literary genre It focuses mainly on French naturalist literature analysing a number of key works in detail but also draws examples from other national traditions particularly from the English novel Professor Baguley questions and revises many traditional assumptions on important theoretical issues such as the nature of literary history the concepts of realism and naturalism and the relations between science and literature He demonstrates the prevalence of certain recurrent generic patterns themes and techniques in the general body of naturalist literature ranging from disquieting tragic developments to the most outrageous ironic and parodic effects He argues persuasively that far from being a mere record of the external aspects of reality naturalist fiction is a literature of scandalous provocation which employs the strategies of realist art to convey a profoundly disturbing vision of that reality

Sexualizing Power in Naturalism Irene Gammel, 1994 Presenting a revisionary reading of German Canadian and American texts such as Fanny Essler Settlers of the Marsh and Sister Carrie Gammel English U of Prince Edward Island attributes to naturalism a predominantly male genre the appropriation of a disruptive female sexuality not so much to liberate it from Victorian repression as to contain it within the male boundaries of naturalism Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Narration and Description in the French Realist Novel James H. Reid, 2006-11-02 This book demonstrates instead the writers use of irony and allegory in struggling against the deceitfulness of their own texts

The Novel-Essay, 1884-1947 S. Ercolino, 2014-04-08 The novel essay emerged in France in the last quarter of the nineteenth century and reached its highest formal complexity in Austria and Germany during the interwar period Here Ercolino argues that it is crucial for a renovated understating of the history of the novel in modernity

Edmond de Goncourt and the Novel Katherine Ashley,2021-11-22 Edmond de Goncourt s four solo novels are not simply extensions of the Goncourt brothers joint project but attempts to deviate from the Naturalism with which their name had come to be associated By analysing paratexts the relationship between documentation and fiction as well as plot devices and themes this study links the evolution of Goncourt s fiction to wider literary debates surrounding Naturalism Decadence and the renewal of the novel in fin de si cle France In bringing Goncourt s writings to an English speaking public it will be of interest to students and scholars of the literary history of late nineteenth century France

The Colonial Comedy: Imperialism in the French Realist Novel Jennifer Yee,2016-09-01 Nineteenth century French Realism focuses on metropolitan France with Paris as its undisputed heart Through Jennifer Yee s close reading of the great novelists of the French realist and naturalist canon Balzac Flaubert Zola Maupassant The Colonial Comedy reveals that the colonies play a role at a distance even in the most apparently metropolitan texts In what Edward Said called geographical notations of race and imperialism the presence of the colonies off stage is apparent as imported objects colonial merchandise and individuals whose colonial experience is transformative Indeed the realist novel registers the presence of the emerging global world system through networks of importation financial speculation and immigration as well as direct colonial violence and power structures The literature of the century responds to the last decades of French slavery and direct colonialism notably in Algeria but also economic imperialism and the extension of French influence elsewhere Far from imperialist triumphalism in the realist novel exotic objects are portrayed as fake or mass produced for the growing bourgeois market while economic imperialism is associated with fraud and manipulation The deliberate contrast of colonialism and exoticism within the metropolitan novel and ironic distancing of colonial narratives reveal the realist mode to be capable of questioning its own epistemological basis The Colonial Comedy argues for the existence in the nineteenth century of a Critical Orientalism characterized by critique of its own discursive foundations Using the tools of literary analysis within a materialist approach The Colonial Comedy opens up the domestic Paris Provinces axis to signifying chains pointing towards the colonial space

The Doctor-Patient Relationship and the Nineteenth-Century French Novel Sarah Jones,2025-03-29 The Doctor Patient Relationship and the Nineteenth Century French Novel analyses the representation of the doctor patient relationship in the nineteenth century French novel notably in the words of Balzac Sand Stendhal and Zola It argues that the doctor patient relationship is represented in these novels as a site of interpersonal negotiation wherein the meaning of medical authority embodied experience and the spectre of illness and pain are mediated and reimagined This book highlights how the doctor patient relationship is often idealized by the novel wherein the doctor is characterised as a both dedicated to his patients and local community as well as being a God like master of life death and medical knowledge The volume suggests that the doctor patient encounter is often depicted as a separate although inherently related concept that undermines this idealisation of medical relationships The doctor patient encounter thereby questions the hegemonic power of medical practitioners over their patients by pointing towards how novels depict patients as resisting and even manipulating their doctors The book identifies and explores other important themes within the doctor patient relationship such as the medical gaze regard m dical power relationships and the use of embodied metaphor In particular the book highlights how the doctor patient relationship is often a confrontation between scientific knowledge and the experience of gender and disability The book s conceptual framework is derived from the critical medical humanities and the volume revitalises and reframes the doctor patient relationship by considering the intrinsic slippage between idealised relationships and critical encounters The book uses close readings of its corpus to understand how medical practice is debated and undermined concurrently with its idealisation It places literary works within a new historical context by reading across novels within their medical and scientific context and situates them for the first time in the intellectual context of the critical medical humanities The book points forward to how nineteenth century French novels can reform how the critical medical humanities views the medical relationship and the potential impact on real world patients
