Nature European Community Environmental Legislation Vol 4:

Strategic Environmental Assessment in International and European Law Simon Marsden, 2012-05-16 Strategic environmental assessment SEA is a regulatory requirement for development across Europe North America Australasia and elsewhere yet understanding the legal aspects is challenging This comprehensive guide provides that understanding in a clear and straightforward way The introduction considers SEA and the law explaining what SEA is why it is needed how it works and why it is required as well as examining the role of the law Part One provides an overview of international law environmental impact assessment EIA and international law including treaties customary international law and soft law relevant to SEA It analyses the Kiev SEA Protocol and related UNECE conventions the Espoo Convention on EIA in a Transboundary Context and the Aarhus Convention on Access to Information Public Participation and Access to Justice in Environmental Matters It also analyses the role of SEA in conservation conventions Part Two considers how the European legal system works including an overview of the current status of European law It examines the EIA Directive and SEA Directive together with other relevant directives and regulations such as the Habitats and Wild Birds Directives the Water Framework Directive the Public Participation for Plans and Programmes Directive and the Structural Funds Regulations Finally the volume draws conclusions about the relationship and comparisons between international and European law generally and in regulating SEA

Environmental Policy Integration Andrea Lenschow, 2012-04-27 Integrating environmental policies into the policies of all other sectors is the core European environmental policy But there has been no thorough investigation of the political process involved This volume provides the first It analyses the process of policy integration the greening of public policy across the relevant sectors and countries It finds significant variation from sector to sector and from country to country and analyses the reasons for this Surprisingly the UK traditionally the dirty man of Europe is far more actively engaged than environmental progressives such as Germany It identifies the obstacles to integration and offers solutions for policy formulation decision making and implementation at the relevant political levels

Policy Integration for Complex Environmental Problems Helen Briassoulis, 2017-07-05 The quest for policy integration crystallized in the 1990s as awareness was growing that the current supply of narrow sectoral and little coordinated or even overlapping and conflicting policies could not cope efficiently and effectively with contemporary complex cross cutting and interdependent socio environmental problems Combining and coordinating policies properly promises to address this institutional misfit add value to policies support planning at national and sub national levels and facilitate the transition to sustainable development more generally This book proposes a comprehensive conceptualization of policy integration and negotiates pertinent theoretical methodological and applied issues from the perspective of selected EU policies rural development regional development transport social economic environmental water resources and biodiversity policy Mediterranean desertification an exceptionally complex socio environmental problem is used as an illustrative example as the idea for this book transpired while researching the topic of policy making to combat desertification in the context of MEDACTION an EU funded research project Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies Vol 4, 2001 Alan Dashwood, Christophe Hillion, J R Spencer, Angela Ward, 2002-11-30 Scrutinizes issues in EU Law the law of the Council of Europe and Comparative Law which have come to the fore during the year preceding publication British Environmental Policy and Europe Philip Lowe, Stephen Ward, 2005-08-10 Explores the effectiveness of British organisations and groups in the environmental field in responding to the challenge of European integration Model Law on Sustainable Management of Coastal Zones and European Code of Conduct for Coastal Zones Council of Europe, 2000-01-01 Coastal areas have experienced unprecedented dramatic changes in the last half of the 20th century especially in zones used for tourism development This code of conduct and model law on coastal areas establishes some general management principles aimed at the sustainable development of coastal areas and the preservation of their environmental values

Understanding the environment and social policy Tony Fitzpatrick, 2011-02-09 Bringing together leading experts this textbook explores the key social political economic and moral challenges that environmental problems pose for social policy in a global context Combining theory and practice with an interdisciplinary approach the book reviews the current strategies and policies and provides a critique of proposed future developments in the field Understanding the environment and social policy guides the reader through the subject in an accessible way using chapter summaries further reading recommended webpages a glossary and questions for discussion Providing a much needed overview the book will be invaluable reading for students teachers activists practitioners and policymakers Environment and Law David Wilkinson, 2005-07-05 This textbook provides a concise introduction for students with little or no legal background to the role of law in environmental protection It describes and explains law and legal systems the concept of the environment sources of environmental law and some of the techniques used in environmental law Interdisciplinary in approach the book explores some of the major connections between law and the disciplines of ethics science economics and politics Environment and Law offers a greater understanding of international and national environmental law and has case studies from all over the world including examples from UK US and Australian law Transboundary water governance and climate change adaptation Rieu-Clarke, Alistair, Moynihan, Ruby, 2015-12-31 Guide to Information on European Union Environment Policy Dorothy Sharp, 1997
