Nature Of Religious Knowledge:

The Process and Nature of Religious Knowledge Winston Lee King, 1940 The Nature of Religious Knowledge
Norman MacLeish, 1938 Religious Knowledge Philip Whitman Walker, 1930 Scepticism, Relativism, and Religious Knowledge Michael G Harvey, 2014-09-25 Scepticism Relativism and Religious Knowledge shows where responses to scepticism and relativism by Karl Barth and Reformed epistemology have led to impasses and reconstructs their insights in a robust response that does not depend on making excessive claims about our epistemic capacities This response is based on a nuanced conception of the relationship between trust doubt faith and reason and a Kierkegaardian perspective on religious knowledge that stresses the role of the will and the intellectual and theological virtues This book will appeal to those with an interest in the deep and often difficult questions of religion and philosophy particularly regarding matters of truth doubt and belief The Nature of Religious Knowledge Yakub Masih, 1971 The New Schaff-Herzog Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge Johann Jakob Herzog, Albert Hauck, Samuel Macauley Jackson, Charles Colebrook Sherman, George William Gilmore, 1910 Scripture and Knowledge Biderman, 1995-11-01 At the core of Scripture and Knowledge lies the problem of the nature of religious knowledge The author argues that religion is a particular framework rather than a particular content or defined set of performances He sees this framework as epistemological that is as one that furnishes believers with a conception of knowledge alternative to that of philosophical reasoning The thesis on the epistemological nature of religion will be developed by the examination of the concept of scripture as a body of authoritative and even infallible texts The concept of scripture is presented as one of the constitutive concepts of the epistemological framework of religion The author argues that the various scriptures and their commentaries should be understood as the arena within which the epistemological process of religion takes place and the central epistemological means by which religious knowledge is made possible The New Schaff-Herzog Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge Albert Hauck, Samuel Macauley Jackson, Charles Colebrook Sherman, George William Gilmore, 1911 Faith and Knowledge John Hick, 2009-08-01 In this revision of his widely read study John Hick has taken advantage of constructive comments on the first edition to make the book more useful New material has been added and the overall structure of the volume has been changed to strengthen it both as an introduction to the problem of religious knowledge and as an exposition of the view of faith that seems to him most adequate There is a new chapter on the Thomist Catholic view of faith a new treatment of the controversial notion of eschatological verification taking account of various published critiques of the concept and a new section on the way in which the Christian faith awareness of God expresses itself in a distinctive way of life
