Natures Keepers On The Front Lines Of The Fight To Save Wildlife In America:

Nature's Keepers Michael Tobias, 1998-10-02 Covers the endangered status of various plants and animals and efforts to combat smuggling poaching and illegal trophy hunting Discusses law enforcement and education issues 21st Century Criminology: A Reference Handbook J. Mitchell Miller, 2009-08-06 Criminology has experienced tremendous growth over the last few decades evident in part by the widespread popularity and increased enrollment in criminology and criminal justice departments at the undergraduate and graduate levels across the U S and internationally Evolutionary paradigmatic shift has accompanied this surge in definitional disciplinary and pragmatic terms Though long identified as a leading sociological specialty area criminology has emerged as a stand alone discipline in its own right one that continues to grow and is clearly here to stay Criminology today remains inherently theoretical but is also far more applied in focus and thus more connected to the academic and practitioner concerns of criminal justice and related professional service fields Contemporary criminology is also increasingly interdisciplinary and thus features a broad variety of ideological orientations to and perspectives on the causes effects and responses to crime 21st Century Criminology A Reference Handbook provides straightforward and definitive overviews of 100 key topics comprising traditional criminology and its modern outgrowths The individual chapters have been designed to serve as a first look reference source for most criminological inquiries Both connected to the sociological origins of criminology i e theory and research methods and the justice systems response to crime and related social problems as well as coverage of major crime types this two volume set offers a comprehensive overview of the current state of criminology From student term papers and masters theses to researchers commencing literature reviews 21st Century Criminology is a ready source from which to quickly access authoritative knowledge on a range of key issues and topics central to contemporary criminology This two volume set in the SAGE 21st Century Reference Series is intended to provide undergraduate majors with an authoritative reference source that will serve their research needs with more detailed information than encyclopedia entries but not so much jargon detail or density as a journal article or research handbook chapter 100 entries or mini chapters highlight the most important topics issues questions and debates any student obtaining a degree in this field ought to have mastered for effectiveness in the 21st century Curricular driven chapters provide students with initial footholds on topics of interest in researching term papers in preparing for GREs in consulting to determine directions to take in pursuing a senior thesis graduate degree career etc Comprehensive in coverage major sections include The Discipline of Criminology Correlates of Crime Theories of Crime Justice Measurement Research Types of Crime and Crime the Justice System The contributor group is comprised of well known figures and emerging young scholars who provide authoritative overviews coupled with insightful discussion that will quickly familiarize researchers students and general readers alike with fundamental and detailed information for each topic Uniform chapter structure makes it easy for students to locate key information with most chapters following a format of Introduction Theory Methods

Guncrazy America Frank N. Egerton, 2018-10-06 The conclusion of this professor historian emeritus is that our gun culture had its uses in establishing American civilization as slavery did But we came to recognize after a bloody civil war that slavery was a gigantic mistake and now I think it s time to realize that our gun culture was a similarly gigantic mistake though of a different kind And we need to do what we can to minimize its horrible impacts and move on to a more positive development of a humane civilization

You Belong in a Zoo! Peter Brazaitis, 2007-12-18 From catching alligators in the reservoirs of New York and capturing giant crocodiles in Venezuela and giant frogs in West Africa to finding mummified human heads in a Bronx apartment eels on a bus cobras on the loose and crocodiles that make change a memoir of one man s career working with exotic reptiles and other animals After the teenage Peter Brazaitis brought home one creepy crawly creature too many his stepmother declared You are an animal and you belong in a zoo He took her at her word He went directly from high school in Brooklyn to a job at the Reptile House at the Bronx Zoo where he stayed for more than thirty years eventually becoming superintendent of reptiles He later became curator of the Central Park Zoo and continues to work with law enforcement as a forensic specialist in the fight to stop illegal importation and slaughter of reptiles for the luxury exotic leather industry His effectiveness at this would earn him the moniker The Bald Headed Snake Keeper in the Bronx You Belong in a Zoo presents the amazing experiences Brazaitis has had in more than four decades of working with wild animals Enlightening funny and often outrageous You Belong in a Zoo is a fascinating behind the scenes look at zoos animal people and some of nature s most extraordinary creatures

Exploiting the Wilderness Greg L. Warchol, 2017-11 Illegally harvested ivory and endangered plants mammals reptiles birds and even insects are easily found for sale throughout East and Southern Africa And this is just one part of the multi billion dollar illegal global trade in wildlife Wildlife is an important and even vital asset for both intrinsic and economic reasons Yet it is illegally exploited on a massive scale to the point where some species now risk extinction Exploiting the Wilderness provides a concise overview of this shameful business describing some of the main species being exploited and examining select wildlife whose survival is imperiled due to heavy pressure from poachers to meet consumer demand Greg Warchol draws on his firsthand experience and research in Africa to examine the structure and operation of the illegal trade in wildlife He identifies the participants as well as their motivations and operations and explains the behavior of poachers traffickers and consumers of illegally obtained goods He concludes with a description of legislative and law enforcement efforts to control and prevent wildlife exploitation along with a number of contemporary conservation initiatives designed to improve the ability of rangers to protect wildlife

Environmental Crime and its Victims Toine Spapens, Rob White, Marieke Kluin, 2016-05-06 Environmental crime is one of the most profitable and fastest growing areas of international criminal activity These types of crime however do not always produce an immediate consequence and the harm may be diffused As such the complexity of victimization in terms of time space impact and who or what is victimized is one of the reasons why governments and the enforcement community have trouble in finding suitable and effective responses This book provides a diverse and provocative array of arguments critiques and recommendations from leading researchers and scholars in the field of green criminology The chapters are divided into three main sections the first part deals with specific characteristics of some of the major types of environmental crime and its perpetrators the second focuses explicitly on the problem of victimization in cases of environmental crime and the third addresses the question of how to tackle this problem Discussing these topics from the point of view of green criminological theory sociology law enforcement community wellbeing environmental activism and victimology this book will be of great interest to all those concerned about crime and the environment

Voices from the Underground Michael Tobias,1999

Documents the human abuse exploitation and cruelty towards animals and profiles people who have worked on behalf of animal welfare including Gene and Lorri Bauston of Farm Animal Sanctuary Ingrid Newkirk and Alex Pacheco founders of PETA Christine Stevens and her Animal Welfare Institute and Rod Coronado jailed for his animal liberation activities

Anthrozoology Michael Charles Tobias,Jane Gray Morrison,2016-12-20 This groundbreaking work of both theoretical and experiential thought by two leading ecological philosophers and animal liberation scientists ventures into a new frontier of applied ethical anthrozoological studies Through lean and elegant text readers will learn that human interconnections with other species and ecosystems are severely endangered precisely because we lack by our evolutionary self confidence the very coherence that is everywhere around us abundantly demonstrated What our species has deemed to be superior is according to Tobias and Morrison the cumulative result of a tragically tenuous argument predicated on the brink of our species self destruction giving rise to a most unique proposition We either recognize the miracle of other sentient intelligence sophistication and genius or risk enshrining the shortest lived epitaph of any known vertebrate in earth s 4 1 billion years of life Tobias and Morrison draw on 45 years of research in fields ranging from ecological anthropology animal protection and comparative ethics to literature and spirituality and beyond They deploy research in animal and plant behavior biocultural heritage contexts from every continent and they bring to bear a deeply metaphysical array of perspectives that set this book apart from any other The book departs from most work in such fields as animal rights ecological aesthetics comparative ethology or traditional animal and plant behaviorist work and yet it speaks to readers with an interest in those fields A deeply provocative book of philosophical premises and hypotheses from two of the world s most influential ecological philosophers this text is likely to stir uneasiness and debate for many decades to come

Animals Matter Marc Bekoff,2007-11-13

Nonhuman animals have many of the same feelings we do They get hurt they suffer they are happy and they take care of each other Marc Bekoff a renowned biologist specializing in animal minds and emotions guides readers from high school age up including older adults who want a basic introduction to the topic in looking at scientific research philosophical ideas and humane values that argue for the ethical and compassionate treatment of animals Citing the latest scientific studies and tackling controversies with conviction he zeroes in on the important questions inviting reader participation with thought experiments and ideas for action Among the questions considered Are some species more valuable or more important than others Do some animals feel pain and suffering and not others Do animals feel emotions Should endangered animals be reintroduced to places where they originally lived Should animals be kept in captivity Are there alternatives to using animals for food clothing cosmetic testing and dissection in the science classroom What can we learn by imagining what it feels like to be a dog or a cat or a mouse or an ant What can we do to make a difference in animals quality of life Bekoff urges us not only to understand and protect animals especially those whose help we want for our research and other human needs but to love and respect them as our fellow beings on this planet that we all want to share in peace Encyclopedia of Law Enforcement Larry E Sullivan,Marie Simonetti Rosen,Dorothy M Schulz,M. R. Haberfeld,2004-12-15 Click Additional Materials for downloadable samples Although there is a plethora of studies on crime and punishment law enforcement is a relatively new field of serious research When courts sentencing prisons jails and other areas of the criminal justice system are studied often the first point of entry into the system is through police and law enforcement agencies Unfortunately understanding of the important issues in law enforcement has little general literature to draw on Currently available reference works on policing are narrowly focused and sorely out of date To this end a distinguished roster of authors representing many years of knowledge and practice in the field draw on the latest research and methods to delineate describe and analyze all areas of law enforcement This three volume Encyclopedia of Law Enforcement provides a comprehensive critical and descriptive examination of all facets of law enforcement on the state and local federal and national and international stages This work is a unique reference source that provides readers with informed discussions on the practice and theory of policing in an historical and contemporary framework The volumes treat subjects that are particular to the area of state and local federal and national and international policing Many of the themes and issues of policing cut across disciplinary borders however and several entries provide comparative information that places the subject in context Key Features Three volumes cover state and local federal and international law enforcement More than 250 contributors composed over 400 essays on all facets of law enforcement An editorial board made up of the leading scholars researchers and practitioners in the field of law enforcement Descriptions of United States Federal Agency law enforcement components Comprehensive and inclusive coverage exploring concepts and social and legal patterns within the larger topical concern Global multidisciplinary analysis Key Themes Agencies Associations and Organizations Civilian Private Involvement Communications Crime Statistics Culture Media Drug Enforcement Federal Agencies Organizations International Investigation Techniques Types of Investigation Investigative Commissions Law and Justice Legislation Legal Issues Military Minority Issues Personnel Issues Police Conduct Police Procedure Policing Strategies Safety and Security Specialized Law
