Honest To Goodness Martin Prozesky, 2019-03-12 Honest to Goodness proposes a new Christian presence that is free of dogmatism, exclusivism, and biblicism. It charts a way back to the spiritual and ethical revolution begun by Jesus of Nazareth, one that can make a vital difference to needless evils such as bigotry, environmental destruction, poverty, and violence. The book reveals the author's experience of living under, against, and after apartheid, insisting that a faith that does not confront this world's evils is no faith at all but a dangerous betrayal of all that is good, beautiful, and true. Honest to Goodness unflinchingly identifies the grave moral shortcomings that are embedded in traditional Christian beliefs and practices and proposes ways of transforming them into harmony with the divine goodness that the author discerns everywhere. Embracing a world of religious diversity, science, and creative philosophy, the book describes a new way of experiencing and expressing the divine. It defends faith by moving beyond both theism and atheism.

The Church Struggle in South Africa John W. De Gruchy, 2005 No more heartrending yet hopeful case study in Christian ethics exists than in the story of South African apartheid and its recent decisive transformation. John de Gruchy's authoritative and newly updated account of Christian complicity with, and then resistance to, one of the world's most notoriously repressive regimes holds indispensable lessons and dangerous memories for all concerned about evil, justice, and racial reconciliation.

The Smile of a Ragpicker Paul Glynn, 2014-09-29 Following his acclaimed work A Song for Nagasaki in which Fr Paul Glynn told the powerful story of Dr Nagai, a Christian convert of remarkable courage and compassion who ministered to victims of the atomic bomb attack on his city, The Smile of a Ragpicker brings us the heroic story of Satoko Kitahara, a young beautiful woman of wealth who gave up her riches and comfort to be among the ragpickers in the Tokyo slums. Motivated by her newfound faith in Christ, she plunged into the life of the poor regardless of the consequences. As Satoko helped the poor with their material and spiritual needs, she also helped them to recover their self-respect and dignity. Satoko's story demonstrates how one person's life can affect so many others. Every day Satoko encountered Christ in some new and challenging way, calling the Church back to identification with the poor. Like Dr Nagai, she expressed her faith through the sensitivity and beauty of her own Japanese culture. Satoko died a young woman in dire poverty. Yet her death, mourned by many thousands, reflected her triumphant life of deep Christian faith and charity. This is a powerful story of reconciliation and healing between people of different social economic and religious backgrounds inspired by a frail young woman of luminous faith Illustrated with photos Woman of the World Mary Kinnear,2004-01-01 Kinnear s acute character study illuminates at the individual level important aspects of twentieth century politics and society Sober, Strict, and Scriptural: Collective Memories of John Calvin, 1800-2000,2009-04-24 Calvinism s influence and reputation have received ample scholarly attention But how John Calvin himself his person character and deeds was remembered commemorated and memorialized is a question few historians have addressed Focussing on the nineteenth and twentieth centuries this volume aims to open up the subject with chapters on Calvin s monumentalization in statues and museums his appearance in novels children s books and travel writing his iconic function for Hungarian nationalists and Presbyterian missionaries to China his reputation among Mormons and freethinkers and his rivalry with Michael Servetus in French Protestant memory The result is a fresh contribution to the field of religious memory studies and an invitation to further comparative research Contributors include R Bryan Bademan Patrick Cabanel R Scott Clark Thomas J Davis Stephen S Francis Joe B Fulton Botond Ga l Stefan Laube Johan de Niet Herman Paul James Rigney Mich le Sacquin Jonathan Seitz Robert Vosloo Bart Wallet and Valentine Zuber

Patrick van Rensburg Kevin Shillington,2020-07-01 Patrick van Rensburg 1931 2017 was an anti apartheid activist and self made alternative educationist whose work received international recognition with the Right Livelihood Award in 1981 Born in KwaZulu Natal into what he described as a very ordinary South African family that believed in the virtue of racism Van Rensburg became a self styled rebel who tirelessly pursued his own vision of a brighter future for emerging societies in post colonial southern Africa His emotional and intellectual struggle against his upbringing and cultural roots led him to reject his life of white privilege in South Africa Determined to prevent the emergence of a privileged black elite in post colonial society he devoted his life to implementing an alternative egalitarian approach to education focusing on quality and functional schooling for the majority Rewarded with the internationally prestigious Right Livelihood Award for his unique contribution to education he saw this work as a necessary tool of development Exiled from South Africa in 1960 because of his involvement in the London boycott campaign that gave birth to the Anti Apartheid Movement Van Rensburg moved to Botswana then Bechuanaland There he founded cooperatives provided vocational training and was among the earliest educationists to espouse the discipline of development studies Perhaps his best known legacy is the Swaneng Hill School which he founded to provide an educational home for primary school dropouts through a curriculum that combined theory and practice and academic and manual labour He involved his pupils in building their school running it providing their own food and making their own equipment and furniture Van Rensburg was an innovative and charismatic visionary who captured the zeitgeist of the late twentieth century and whose work and vision still have resonance for debates in educational policy today A History of Global Anglicanism Kevin Ward,2006-11-23 Anglicanism can be seen as irredeemably English In this book Kevin Ward questions that assumption He explores the character of the African Asian Oceanic Caribbean and Latin American churches which are now a majority in the world wide communion and shows how they are decisively shaping what it means to be Anglican While emphasising the importance of colonialism and neo colonialism for explaining the globalisation of Anglicanism Ward does not focus predominantly on the Churches of Britain and N America nor does he privilege the idea of Anglicanism as an expansion of English Christianity At a time when Anglicanism faces the danger of dissolution Ward explores the historically deep roots of non Western forms of Anglicanism and the importance of the diversity and flexibility which has so far enabled Anglicanism to develop cohesive yet multiform identities around the world Trevor Huddleston Piers McGrandle,2005-07-19 When the history of Christianity in the 20th Century is written Trevor Huddleston will certainly occupy much space A major figure in the battle against Apartheid in South Africa his book Naught for Your Comfort 1956 changed the perception of liberal Westerners about what was really going on in that tortured land Huddleston was an Anglican monk and thus subject to the rule of obedience He was called back from South Africa when he was at the height of his intellectual and physical powers He was made Bishop of Stepney but like too many clergyman was tainted by accusations of sexual impropriety as a result suffered to the limits of human endurance In his retirement he lived at the mother house of his order in Mirfield Yorkshire but his last years were not happy ones as he faded from public attention and underwent periods of deep depression and uncertainty about his fundamental beliefs Piers McGrandle s new biography of Huddleston is ground breaking in its analysis of what makes men great But it also brings the reader down to earth with a thud in showing how profoundly complex are the motivations of Christians who have wide influence As a study in human psychology McGrandle raises issues which may be applied to many so called saints After the collapse of Apartheid Huddleston was able to return to South Africa but never received the recognition that he thought he deserved and this also tortured him
