Alfredo Jaar

Nauman Kruger Jaar:

Alfredo Jaar Alfredo Jaar, Mary Jane Jacob, Nancy Princenthal, 2005 Alfredo Jaar is one of the most uncompromising artists working today Through his photographic works and installations he studies cases of political oppression and social marginalisation Alfredo Jaar : la politique des images Alfredo Jaar, 2007 Spanning from the 1970s until today this compelling new monograph traces the development of the respected Chilean born New York based conceptualist from his earliest public interventions to his latest installations Some of the highly political subjects range from the plight of Amazonian gold miners to the 1994 genocide in Rwanda and there are several previously unpublished works that the artist created in his hometown of Santiago during Pinochet's repressive military dictatorship as well as numerous works made by collating and rethinking press clippings Working with public interventions installations photography and video Jaar examines the nature of images and their viewers relationships to them His work tackles the very possibility of producing art based on events that we would prefer to ignore and of creating images in a context characterized both by their over abundance and paradoxically by their invisibility Texts by art historians Georges Didi Huberman Griselda Pollock and Nicole Schweizer and philosopher Jacques Rancière Face to Face Hans-Michael Herzog, Daros Collection (Art), 2008 Since its emergence in the 1980s and 90s the Daros Collection in Zurich has accumulated about 280 works by 30 outstanding North American and European artists It possesses one of the finest collections of early Warhol and major works by Sigmar Polke Barbara Kruger Alfredo Jaar and Louise Bourgeois among many others In 2000 when the strength and integrity of this collection had been established the museum boldly struck off in a new direction and the Daros Latin America Collection was founded Already comprising roughly 1 000 works by around 100 artists including Carlos Amorales Jos Bedia Alfredo Jaar Gego Guillermo Kuitca Vik Muniz among others it is now the largest collection of Latin American art in Europe an exciting new resource that will doubtless have interesting long term ramifications for contemporary European art Face to Face is the first volume to bring the two Daros Collections together thereby engaging these works created in different media and of various cultural origin in a dynamic dialogue that disrupts ordinary canon oriented perspectives Face to Face thus not only deepens our knowledge of the respective qualities of the two collections but also explores the common characteristics of their cultural backgrounds Jaar Alfredo Jaar, 2006 A re encounter with Chilean audiences after an absence of twenty five years An anthology of works better known to the rest of the world than to his native country A frank demanding dialogue with a new public and a new generation of intellectuals Jaar's work evolves from project to project as he continually shapes and renews his poetic thinking on such themes such as the contemporary status of images the role of artists and intellectuals in society and an ethical imperative expressed in an aesthetics of resistance Jaar SCL 2006 Alfredo Jaar, 2006 Chilean Artist Alfredo Jaar Opens a Frank Dialogue About his work and his Future A re encounter with Chilean audiences after an absence of twenty five years this is an anthology of works better known to the rest of the world than to his native country A frank demanding dialogue with a new public and a new generation of intellectuals Jaar's work evolves as he continually shapes and renews his poetic thinking on such themes as the contemporary status of images the role of artists and intellectuals in society and aesthetics of resistance Parkett Series with Contemporary Artists ,2001 Elusive Signs Bruce Nauman,Joseph D. Ketner,Janet Kraynak,Gregory Volk,2006-03-03 Images of nearly all Bruce Nauman's signs and room installation using neon and fluorescent light from Window or Wall Sign 1967 to the monumental One Hundred Live and Die 1984 accompanied by interpretive essays Intrigued and inspired by the neon beer signs on shopfronts in his San Francisco neighborhood Bruce Nauman created his first neon piece Window or Wall Sign in 1967 He wanted he said to achieve an art that would kind of disappear that was supposed to not quite look like art Light offered Nauman a medium both elusive and effervescent but one that could also aggressively convey a message Over the first three decades of his career Nauman used the medium of light to explore the twists and turns of perception logic and meaning with the earnest playfulness that characterizes all his art Elusive Signs focuses on the discrete body of Nauman's work that uses neon and fluorescent light in signs and room installations and includes images of nearly all Nauman's work with light After Window or Wall Sign Nauman embarked on a series of neons that grappled with the semiotics of body and identity and with My Name as Though it Were Written on the Surface of the Moon 1968 he forces the viewer to contemplate the role of naming in forming identity Language signs and symbols plays an important role in Nauman's art His later neon works emphasize the neon as a sign presenting provocative twists of language and offering harsh and humorous sociopolitical commentary in such pieces as Run from Fear Fun from Rear 1972 This series culminates in the monumental billboard size One Hundred Live and Die 1984 which employs overwhelming scale to bombard the viewer with sardonic aphorisms In incisive essays that accompany the images of Nauman's work Joseph Ketner II of the Milwaukee Art Museum which originated the exhibit this book accompanies and critic Janet Kraynak and Gregory Volk analyze the works in light both as a body of work and as an access point to Nauman's entire career Distributed for the Milwaukee Art Museum Worträume Dunja Schneider,2011 Art Nexus ,2007 From Pop to Now Sonnabend Gallery (New York, N.Y.),Rachel Haidu,2002 Taking one of Andy Warhol's famous Campbell soup can paintings as its starting point From Pop to Now presents a definitive survey of works collected by international gallery owners Ileana and Michael Sonnabend over the last four decades For more than half a century the Sonnabends have been a seminal force in the contemporary art world often showing bold new work considered impossible to sell or too difficult for the times In Paris from 1962 to 1973 and in New York from 1970 to the present the Sonnabend galleries shows have showcased a virtual who's who of contemporary art spanning the full gamut of artistic exploration from Pop Art to Minimalism and Conceptualism from painting and sculpture to video and photography During the height of the Pop movement Ileana was dubbed the Mom of Pop Art and the impact made by her artists at the time among them Jasper Johns Robert Rauschenberg Cy Twombly Andy Warhol Roy Lichtenstein Claes Oldenburg and James Rosenquist is now as legendary as Sonnabend's passion for collecting contemporary art Committed to exposing audiences in Europe and the United States to the most exciting contemporary work on both continents the Sonnabends brought to New York the works of Italian Arte Povera artists Mario Merz Gilberto Zorio Jannis Kounellis and Pier Calzolari and other Europeans including Bernd and Hilla Becher Christian Boltanski and Anselm Kieffer More than a collection From Pop to Now looks at a pivotal time in contemporary art history bringing together not only the names that have made history but also the seminal artworks that have defined a generation
