Naval War In The Pacific The Rising Sun:

The Naval War in The Pacific- The Rising Sun of Nippon-Vol #11 Trevor Nevitt Dupuy,1963 The Naval War in the Pacific Trevor Nevitt Dupuy,1963 Describes the major battles and campaigns of aerial combat in the early years of World War II The Naval War in the Pacific, the Rising Sun of Nippon and on to Tokyo Trevor Nevitt Dupuy,2012-10-01 The Military History Of World War II Is In Eighteen Volumes History of United States Naval Operations in World War II. Samuel Eliot Morison,2001 This book deals with the incidents that really began the war in the Pacific and the internal conflicts within Japan History of United States Naval Operations in World War II: The rising sun in the Pacific, 1931-April 1942 Samuel Eliot Morison,2001 Volume III The Rising Sun in the Pacific 1931 April 1942 chronicles the difficult early months of the campaign in the Pacific detailing the navy s reverses at Wake Island in the Philippines and along the Malay Barrier Rising Sun in the Pacific: 1931 - April 1942 - Volume 3 Samuel Eliot Morison,1948-01-30 History of the United States Naval Operations in World War II The Eagle and the Rising Sun Alan Schom,2004 On Saturday August 2 1941 the Washington Post reported that President Franklin D Roosevelt would depart the next day for a fishing vacation aboard his yacht Potomac By the morning of August 5 the Potomac was sailing toward the fishing waters off Cape Cod but the president was not on board Having quietly disembarked in the middle of the night the president now joined by his top military advisors was headed for Newfoundland where the U S and British governments would meet in a secret summit to coordinate their military efforts although the United States had yet to declare war on Germany The British were appalled at the state of American preparedness one British colonel remarking They have a long way to go before they can play any decisive part in the war But ready or not the United States would be catapulted into World War II within a matter of months Alan Schom s superb histories and biographies have been lauded for their dramatic sweep their focus on extraordinary personalities and their refreshingly iconoclastic perspective Schom begins this magisterial account of World War II in the Pacific by demonstrating an ironic paradox on one hand the American government and people were as inadequately prepared for war as any major power ever has been on the other the Japanese high command plunged headlong into the Pacific campaign despite clear evidence from their own analysts that Japan had too little oil and too feeble an economy to prevail against the United States It was a war that should not have been fought Schom recounts a tense saga of diplomatic maneuvering strategic blunders and pivotal successes played out in the halls of the White House Downing Street and the Imperial Palace as well as on the seas and shores of the Pacific Key figures in the war come vividly to life in a series of brilliant biographical sketches Emperor Hirohito a devotee of Western pursuits such as golf and jazz who hungered to expand Japan s global reach the destructively egotistical General Douglas MacArthur whose splendid achievements in World War I stood in stark contrast to his incompetent leadership in the Philippines Rear Admiral Kelly Turner whose realism and tactical savvy played a crucial role in turning the tide of the war and the cool headed Admiral

Tanaka Raizo who repeatedly slipped through the Allied net transporting troops and supplies to and from Guadalcanal The Eagle and the Rising Sun embraces the broad strategic concerns of the war and the telling details and turning points of individual engagements As Rear Admiral Thomas Marfiak Ret CEO and publisher of the U S Naval Institute writes in the Foreword From time to time we are privileged to be given extraordinary insights into the history of our age Alan Schom has given us a tapestry into which he has woven figures of immense proportions yet he has not lost sight of their humanity He writes in the grand tradition of Barbara Tuchman s The Guns of August Book jacket Rising Sun, Falling Skies Jeffrey Cox,2014-03-20 Following the attack on Pearl Harbor the Japanese offensive in the Far East seemed unstoppable Allied forces engaged in a futile attempt to halt their rapid advance culminating in the massed fleet of American British Dutch and Australian forces ABDA clashing with the Japanese at the battle of the Java Sea the first major sea battle of World War II in the Pacific But in a campaign crippled by poor leadership and disastrous decisions the Allied response was catastrophic losing their largest warships and their tenuous toe hold in the south Pacific within the first 72 hours of the battle This defeat left ground troops cut off from reinforcement and supply with obsolete equipment no defense against endless Japanese air attacks and with no chance of retreat However although command decisions were to condemn the Allies to defeat the Allied goal was never an outright victory simply a delaying action Facing a relentless and thoroughly vicious enemy the combined forces responded not by running or surrendering but by defiantly holding on in a struggle that was as much a test of character bravery and determination as it was a test of arms ultimately costing the Allies ten vessels and the lives of 2 100 brave sailors In Rising Sun Falling Skies Jeffrey Cox examines the events and evidence surrounding the Java Sea Campaign reconstructing battles that in hindsight were all but hopeless and revealing where fatal mistakes and missed opportunities condemned the Allied forces in an insightful and compelling study of the largely overlooked clash in the Java Sea The Military History of World War II.: The naval war in the Pacific: The Rising Sun of Nippon Trevor Nevitt Dupuy,1962
