Piet Mondrian 1872-1944 Structures In Space:

Piet Mondrian, 1872-1944 Susanne Deicher, 1999 This volume presents Dutch painter Piet Mondrian 1872 1944 His earliest landscapes are rendered in an Impressionistic style but possess the marked vertical and horizontal tendencies that foreshadow his mature paintings Mondrian's work began to show the influences of Cubism and in 1912 the artist moved to Paris where he continued to refine his style continually exploring increasingly sophisticated compositions In his paintings Mondrian strove to achieve a universal form of expression by reducing form and color to their simplest components The artist termed his work Neo Plasticism Mondrian's most well known works consisted of white ground upon which was painted a grid of vertical and horizontal black lines and the three primary colors Modern Art and the Life of a Culture Jonathan A. Anderson, William A. Dyrness, 2016-05-23 In 1970 Hans Rookmaaker published Modern Art and the Death of a Culture a groundbreaking work that considered the role of the Christian artist in society This volume responds to his work by bringing together a practicing artist and a theologian who argue that modernist art is underwritten by deeply religious concerns

Mondrian's Philosophy of Visual Rhythm Eiichi Tosaki, 2017-11-15 This volume investigates the meaning of visual rhythm through Piet Mondrian's unique approach to understanding rhythm in the compositional structure of painting drawing reference from philosophy aesthetics and Zen culture Its innovation lies in its reappraisal of a forgotten definition of rhythm as stasis or composition which can be traced back to ancient Greek thought This conception of rhythm the book argues can be demonstrated in terms of pictorial strategy through analysis of East Asian painting and calligraphy with which Greek thought on rhythm has identifiable commonalities The book demonstrates how these ideas about rhythm draw together various threads of intellectual development in the visual arts that cross disparate aesthetic cultural practices As an icon of early 20th Century Modernism Mondrian's neoplasticism is a serious painterly and philosophical achievement In his painting Mondrian was deeply influenced by Theosophy which took its influence from Eastern aesthetics particularly East Asian and Indian thought However Mondrian's approach to visual rhythm was so idiosyncratic that his contribution to studies of visual rhythm is often under recognized This volume shows that a close inspection of Mondrian's own writing thinking and painting has much to tell scholars about how to understand a long forgotten aspect of visual rhythm Rodin's famous criticism of photography athlete in motion is forever frozen can be applied to Muybridge's zoopraxiscope the Futurists rendition of stroboscopic images and Duchamp's Nude Descending a Staircase Through a comparative study between Mondrian's painting and these seminal works this volume initiates a new convention for the cognition of the surface of painting as visual rhythm Mondrian's simultaneous emphasis on the static and the rhythmic is hardly fodder for a publicist Eiichi Tosaki has taken on the challenge of elucidating Mondrian's theories of rhythm and particularly his conception of static rhythm The result is a tour de force that will forever alter the reader's encounter with the works of Mondrian Prof Kathleen Higgins

Ferris,2022-03-29 In a catalogue note for the 1965 exhibition Between Poetry and Painting at the Institute of Contemporary Arts the poet Edwin Morgan probed the relationship between abstraction and literature Abstract painting can often satisfy but abstract poetry can only exist in inverted commas Language may be fragmented rearranged or distorted abstract in so far as it is withdrawn from a particular system of knowledge but Morgan was of the mind that to be wholly disruptive was to deprive a poem of its point as an object of contemplation Whilst abstract art may have come to fulfil or fortify an impression of post war taste abstraction in literature continued to be treated with suspicion But how does this speak to the extent to which Britain s literary culture was responsive to progress compared to its artistic culture Abstraction in Post War British Literature 1945 1980 traces a line of literary experimentation in post war British literature that was prompted by the aesthetic philosophical and theoretical demands of abstraction Spanning the period 1945 to 1980 it observes the ways in which certain aesthetic advancements initiated new forms of literary expression to posit a new genealogy of interdisciplinary practice in Britain At a time in which Britain became conscious of its evolving identity within an increasingly globalised context this study accounts for the range of Continental and Transatlantic influences in order to more accurately locate the networks at play Exploring the contributions made by individuals such as Herbert Read Ian Hamilton Finlay and Christine Brooke Rose as well as by groups of practitioners It brings a wide range of previously unexplored archival material into the public domain and offers a comprehensive account of the evolving status of abstraction across cultural institutional and literary contexts Entertainment Computing – ICEC 2023 Paolo Ciancarini,Angelo Di Iorio,Helmut Hlavacs,Francesco
