Early Journals and Letters of Fanny Burney, Volume 2 Lars E. Troide, 1991-02-01 The years 1774-77 saw Fanny Burney s increasing occupation with Evelina which she finally completed and presented to the publisher Thomas Lowndes Like her novel the journals and letters of this period reveal her artistic powers as she continues to sketch characters with economy and precision and create convincing narratives out of the events of her life Among the more memorable figures she meets at her father s London house are the noble savage Omai the first Tahitian brought back to England the famed explorer James Abyssinian Bruce who returned from Africa with tales of natives who ate raw flesh and Prince Aleksei Orlov of Russia who had Czar Peter III murdered in order to permit Peter s wife Catherine the Great to ascend the throne Other notable figures include Dr Samuel Johnson and the great singer Lucrezia Agujari admired by Mozart Also in these pages the usually diffident Miss Burney takes charge of her destiny by rebuffing her suitor Thomas Barlow who has wealth education good looks and the vehement approval of most of her family but whom she finds a total bore The journals and letters of Fanny Burney are an invaluable source for anyone interested in the social and literary history of late eighteenth and early nineteenth century England Lars Troide has supported the texts with thorough and detailed annotations
