

An illustration of a church with a rainbow. The church is a small, dark building with a steeple, surrounded by trees. A large, vibrant rainbow arches over the church and extends across the sky. The scene is set in a landscape with a path leading towards the church. The overall tone is peaceful and hopeful.

Mighty Fortress Is Our God The Story Of Martin Luther

Jim Cromarty

Mighty Fortress Is Our God The Story Of Martin Luther:

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God Jim Cromarty, 1998 On 31 October 1517 a lone monk pushed his way through the crowds milling around the streets of Wittenberg a small university town in eastern Germany and made his way towards the church Arriving at the church door he nailed to it a list of ninety five propositions or theses in a formal gesture inviting the townspeople to a public debate At the time very few people took much notice of his actions but within a few weeks people throughout Europe were discussing the contents of those theses and a chain of events had been set in motion which would have profound effects for the whole of Western Europe and beyond for centuries to come That monk was Martin Luther Fresh and fast moving Jim Cromarty's account of the life and influence of the great Reformer brings Martin Luther out from the pages of the history books portraying his warm vibrant personality and unwavering faith Packed with detail A Mighty fortress is our God lays an excellent foundation for further study of the Reformation period and Luther's own testimony which remains as relevant now as it ever was Not only is this book valuable as an introduction to Martin Luther's life but it also serves as a reminder of those cardinal doctrines of the faith which can alone transform the lives of men and women today Faith Cook Jim Cromarty's rendition of Luther sings sweetly Though clearly aware of critical scholarship Cromarty has written a narrative to entice a delight The story is ever fresh written in a lively engaging and at times enchanting style Luther never fails to fascinate encourage and bring prayers of thanks for God's deliverance from the soul tyranny of medieval Rome Cromarty's story unleashes Luther in all his strength and sweetness and keeps the reader absorbed in the drama with its tensions and celebrations Tom Nettles
