Mikhail Larionov and the Cultural Politics of Late Imperial Russia Sarah Warren, 2017-07-05 In the turbulent atmosphere of early twentieth century Tsarist Russia avant garde artists took advantage of a newly pluralistic culture in order to challenge orthodoxies of form as well as social prohibitions Very few did this as effectively or to as broad an audience as Mikhail Larionov This groundbreaking study examines the complete range of his work painting book illustration performance and curatorial work and demonstrates that Larionov was taking part in a broader cultural conversation that arose out of fundamental challenges to autocratic rule Sarah Warren brings the culture of late Imperial Russia out of obscurity highlighting Larionov's specific interventions into conversations about nationality and empire democracy and autocracy and people and intelligentsia that colonized all areas of cultural production Rather than analyzing Larionov's works within the same interpretive frameworks as those of his contemporaries in France or Germany such as Matisse or Kirchner Warren explores the Russian's negotiations with both nationalism and modernism Further this study shows that Larionov's group exhibitions public debates and face painting performances were more than a derivative repetition of the techniques of the Italian Futurists Rather these activities were the culmination of his attempt to create a radical primitivism one that exploited the widespread Russian desire for an authentic collective identity while resisting imperial efforts to appropriate this revivalism to its own ends

Handbook of International Futurism Günter Berghaus, 2018-12-17 The Handbook of International Futurism is the first reference work ever to presents in a comparative fashion all media and countries in which the movement initiated by F T Marinetti in 1909 exercised a particularly noteworthy influence The handbook offers a synthesis of the state of scholarship regarding the international radiation of Futurism and its influence in some fifteen artistic disciplines and thirty eight countries While acknowledging the great achievements of the movement in the visual and literary arts of Italy and Russia it treats Futurism as an international multidisciplinary phenomenon that left a lasting mark on the manifold artistic manifestations of the early twentieth century avant garde Hundreds of artists who in some phase in their career absorbed Futurist ideas and stylistic devices are presented in the context of their national traditions their international connections and the media in which they were predominantly active The handbook acts as a kind of multi disciplinary geographical encyclopaedia of Futurism and gives scholars with varying levels of experience a detailed overview of all countries and disciplines in which the movement had a major impact

Russian Archaism Irina Shevelenko, 2024-08-15 Russian Archaism considers the aesthetic quest of Russian modernism in relation to the nation building ideas that spread in the late imperial period Irina Shevelenko argues that the cultural milieu in Russia where the modernist movement began as an extension of Western trends at the end of the nineteenth century soon became captivated by nationalist indoctrination Members of artistic groups critics and theorists advanced new interpretations of the goals of aesthetic experimentation that would allow them to embed the nation building agenda within the aesthetic one Shevelenko's book focuses on the period from the formation of the World of Art group 1898 through the Great War and encompasses visual arts literature music and performance As Shevelenko shows it was the rejection of the Russian westernized tradition informed by the revival of populist sensibilities across the educated class that played a formative role in the development of Russian modernist agendas particularly after the 1905 revolution Russian Archaism reveals the modernist artistic enterprise as a crucial source of insight into Russia's political and cultural transformation in the early twentieth century and beyond Fin-de-siècle Russia and Chinese Aesthetics Jinyi

Chu, 2024-08-30 Many are familiar with European modernists' interest in Chinese art and poetry however less well known is that Russian literature and art at the turn of 20th century also flourished in a sustained dialogue with China In Fin de siècle Russia and Chinese Aesthetics Jinyi Chu reconsiders the place of Russia in the genealogy of global modernism by exploring the enduring impact of China on pre-revolutionary Russian culture This book argues that fin de siècle Russian ideas about increasing global cultural and socioeconomic interconnectedness emerged from their unsettling encounters with China Drawing on literary texts paintings advertisements official documents and archival work in Russia China France and the United States Chu reconstructs surprising stories about cultural interactions From Innokenty Annensky's encounter with a Tibetan monk in Paris Aleksei Remizov's adaptations of Chinese ghost stories and Lev Tolstoy's translations of the Daoist canon to Ilya Mashkov's fauvist painting of a Chinese fairy this book presents a new cultural history of fin de siècle Russia in relation to the East Fin de siècle Russia and Chinese Aesthetics casts new light on the intricate relationships between geopolitics and transnational aesthetics It moves beyond the idea that Russian literary and artistic representations of China were simply manifestations of Russia's imperial ideology and Eurasian cultural identity Instead Chu shows that literature and art actively renegotiate and destabilize the preconceived world order at a time of intensifying geopolitical and cultural transformation when China shifted from Russia's rival in Inner Asia to a target in the competition of global imperialist powers

Concise Dictionary of Women Artists Delia Gaze, 2013-04-03 This book includes some 200 complete entries from the award-winning Dictionary of Women Artists as well as a selection of introductory essays from the main volume Deleuze and Futurism Helen Palmer, 2014-08-28 This book is an original exploration of Deleuze's dynamic philosophies of space time and language bringing Deleuze and futurism together for the first time Helen Palmer investigates both the potential for creative novelty and the pitfalls of formalism within both futurist and Deleuzian linguistic practices Through creative and rigorous analyses of Russian and Italian futurist manifestos the futurist aspects of Deleuze's language and thought are drawn out The genre of the futurist manifesto is a literary and linguistic model which can be applied to Deleuze's work not only at times when he writes explicitly in the style of a manifesto but also in his earlier writings such as Difference and Repetition 1968 and The Logic of Sense 1969 The way in which avant garde manifestos often attempt to perform and demand their aims simultaneously and the problems which arise due to this is an operation which can be perceived in Deleuze's writing With a particular focus on Russian zaum the book negotiates the philosophy behind futurist nonsense language and how Deleuze propounds analogous goals in The Logic of Sense This book critically engages with Deleuze's poetics ultimately suggesting that multiple linguistic models operate synecdochically within his philosophy
