Asking What: No More Whys Wilma Marler, 2014-05-28 The story of being the victim of threats and related actions served as the predictor of my life journey My writing about my anger at the outcome of that event led a professor to suggest I change my major from sociology to journalism Although I did not heed that suggestion I am following that advice now I was trapped in my anger and it seemed every day there was a new inquiry of why this or why that In changing the question from why to what I discovered God's reason for my journey Questioning the reason for events elicits from God the response children are prone to get from parents because I said so or because I am your parent God is my Father and I am His child God received the same response that my parents received to that explanation I chose to be angry Once I learned that anger was my choice God could patiently and lovingly lead me to my ministry Two days after losing my sister to cancer I understood the lesson Being a minister is a title or label The what of my journey with God is to be available to minister to those individuals He places in my life Through obedience to God the what in my life became anger of motivation in my life It was anger that taught me to ask what and the lesson to be shared with others is start asking what their marriage in anyway possible and despite the many chances Caleb gives him to make amends but it didnt seem to do any good Caleb is forced to end his longtime friendship with Dalton for the sake of his marriage and to shield his son from the godly behavior Dalton portrays in view of his son The decision Caleb makes didnt set too well with Dalton and vows in his heart to somehow get even with the woman who destroyed his friendship with Caleb but first he had to make it appear he no longer has any resentment toward Kenitra It is during Seths sixth birthday party that he arranges an air show to set his revenge in motion Kenitra is devastated when Dalton maliciously murders her beloved husband and his supposedly godson in front of her He looks at her without any remorse and leaves her for dead after shooting her but his brutal attempt to kill her fails He is convicted of murder as well as attempted murder Kenitra tries to put the pieces of her shattered life back together but it is nearly impossible when her mother in law constantly blames her for their deaths when they were her life She began to blame God for all that has happened since He is big enough to have stopped it from ever happening in the first place Her best friend Stephanie who is also Calebs sister only reminds her of what didnt have any longer She feels like she has nothing left after this tragedy and turns her back on Most High God and runs from everything that reminds her of the life she once had Kenitra didnt care about anything or anyone after that and traveled from one place to another till she settles in England She lives there for years before being led to move to Kennebunk Beach ME where she meets a teenager named Mercedes Branden after converting an abandoned bar into a health food caf Mercedes lands a job working for her and introduces her brother the first day of her new job Philip a pastor is immediately drawn to her and soon discovers Kenitra is agnostic and doesnt believe in God but has no idea she would later become the woman of his dream Kenitra didnt have any intentions of falling for anyone especially someone like Philip since she resents his religious beliefs but in time her feelings for him changes and much to her surprise she marries Philip 18 months later The moral is love does heal a broken heart when God is doing the healing so trust Him with all of your problems because He has the answers The Young Wives Elaine
