world for plant collector John Fothergill he wrote Travels for an entirely different audience Convinced that Providence directed events for the betterment of mankind and that the Constitutional Convention would produce a political model for the rest of the world Bartram offered Travels as a means of shaping the new country Cashin illuminates the convictions that motivated Bartram that if Americans lived in communion with nature heeded the moral law and treated the people of the interior with respect then America would be blessed with greatness Swamp Water and Wiregrass George A.
