Historical Dictionary of Egypt Arthur Goldschmidt, Jr., 2013-10-10 Egypt's was the first non Western country to undergo an industrial revolution It was a major commercial center during the 19th and early 20th centuries It was one of the first countries to have albeit briefly a constitutional government Its struggle for independence was among the earliest in the non Western world Its capital Cairo has served as a headquarters and a meeting place for nationalist leaders Its schools and universities attracted students from many other African and Asian countries For the Arab world its educational and legal institutions set the pattern that most other Arabic speaking countries have followed Its books magazines and newspapers circulate widely Its radio and television broadcasting became the model for other Arab states The leadership of Jamal Abd al Nasir and Anwar al Sadat profoundly influenced other Arab and Third World leaders And the demonstrations in Cairo s Tahrir Square became the iconic movement for the so called Arab Spring in the rest of the Middle East This fourth edition of Historical Dictionary of Egypt covers its history from its emergence as an independent actor during the reign of Ali Bey 1760 1772 up to and including the first two years of the Arab Spring February 2013 This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on of persons events institutions political groups economic and social conditions policies relationships with other countries ideas religions ideologies and commodities relevant to the modern history of Egypt This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Egypt American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Creative Reckonings Jessica Winegar,2006 Ethnographic study of cultural politics in the contemporary Egyptian art world examining how art making is a crucial aspect of the transformation from socialism to neoliberalism in postcolonial countries Cairo Contested Diane Singerman,2011 This volume explores the meaning and significance of urban space and maps the spatial inscription of power on the mega city of Cairo Observing the Observer Zahid Bukhari,Sulayman Nyang,2012-01-01 THE collection of papers in this volume documents the study of Islam in American Universities Over the last few decades the United States has seen significant growth in the study of Islam and Islamic societies in institutions of higher learning fueled primarily by events including economic relations of the U S with Muslim countries migration of Muslims into the country conversion of Americans to Islam U S interests in Arab oil resources involvement of Muslims in the American public square and the tragic events of 9 11 Although there is increasing recognition that the study of Islam and the role of Muslims is strategically essential in a climate of global integration multiculturalism and political turmoil nevertheless the state of Islamic Studies in America is far from satisfactory The issue needs to be addressed particularly as the need for intelligent debate and understanding is continuously stifled by what some have termed an Islam industry run primarily by fly by journalists think tank pundits and cut and paste experts The Political Economy of the New Egyptian Republic Nicholas S. Hopkins,2015-05-15 Egypt is a country of its people What has been the effect on its inhabitants of the 2011 revolution and subsequent developments In 2013 a conference held under the auspices of Cairo Papers in Social Science examined this issue from the points of view of anthropologists historians political scientists psychologists and urban planners The papers collected here reveal the strategies that various actors employed in this situation Contributors Ellis Goldberg David Sims Yasmine Ahmed Deena Abdelmonem Dina Makram Ebeid Clement Henry Sandrine Gamblin Hans Christian Korsholm Nielsen Zeinab Abul Magd Market Threads Koray Çalışkan,2010-08-16 What is a global market How does it work At a time when new crises in world markets cannot be satisfactorily resolved through old ideas Market Threads presents a detailed analysis of the international cotton trade and argues for a novel and groundbreaking understanding of global markets The book examines the arrangements institutions and power relations on which cotton trading and production depend and provides an alternative approach to the analysis of pricing mechanisms Drawing upon research from such diverse places as the New York Board of Trade and the Turkish and Egyptian countrysides the book explores how market agents from peasants to global merchants negotiate accept reject resist reproduce understand and misunderstand a global market The book demonstrates that policymakers and researchers must focus on the specific practices of market maintenance in order to know how they operate Markets do not simply emerge as a relationship among self interested buyers and sellers governed by appropriate economic institutions Nor are they just social networks embedded in wider economic social structures Rather global markets are maintained through daily interventions the production of prosthetic prices and the waging of struggles among those who produce and exchange commodities The book illustrates the crucial consequences that these ideas have on economic reform projects and market studies Spanning a variety of disciplines Market Threads offers an original look at the world commodity trade and revises prevailing explanations for how markets work The Striking Cabbies of Cairo and Other Stories John T.

Chalcraft,2012-02-01 This book charts new directions in Egyptian social history providing the first systematic account of adaptation and protest among crafts and service workers in Egypt in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Using a wealth of new sources John T Chalcraft challenges conventional notions of craft stagnation and decline by recovering the largely unknown histories of crafts workers restructuring in the face of world economic integration and their petitions demonstrations and strike action at a time of state building and colonial rule Chalcraft demonstrates the economic importance of petty producers and service providers and tells the story of widespread collective assertion couched in new discourses of citizenship and nationalism He also gives a new interpretation of the end of the guilds in Egypt and addresses larger debates about unevenness under capitalism Rule of Experts Timothy Mitchell,2002-11-18 Publisher Description

Crafts and Craftsmen of the Middle East Suraiya Faruqi,Randi Deguilhem,2005-03-24 Crafts and Craftsmen of the Middle East presents research on craft workers within and outside the guild structure from the modern and contemporary Mediterranean world From the late sixteenth century Ottoman Empire to traditional style crafts in twentieth century Turkey and Egypt the book surveys a multitude of traditions It begins in 1582 when Istanbul artisans paraded in front of Sultan Murad III moves through to the eighteenth century struggles between artisans and tax farmers in Tokat the artisans of Cairo and the craftsmen of Adana and into nineteenth century accounts of Istanbul s women workers and Jewish butchers This book is essential to all those interested in the history of the culture and society of the Islamic Mediterranean Workers and Working Classes in the Middle East Zachary Lockman,1994-01-01 This book brings together for the first time the work of many of the leading scholars in the field of Middle East working class history Using historical material from nineteenth century Syria late Ottoman Anatolia republican Turkey Egypt from the late nineteenth century through the Sadat period Iran before and after the overthrow of the Shah and Ba thist Iraq the authors explore different forms and interpretations of working class identity action and organization as expressed in language culture and behavior In addition they examine different narratives of labor history and the place of workers in their respective national histories Included are articles by Feroz Ahmad Assef Bayat Joel Beinin Edmund Burke III Dipesh Chakrabarty Eric Davis Ellis Goldberg Kristin Koptiuch Zachary Lockman Marsha Pripstein Posusney Donald Quataert and Sherry Vatter The book provides not only an introduction to the state of the field in Middle East working class history but also demonstrates how that field is being influenced by the new paradigms which are transforming labor history and social history more broadly worldwide It also opens the way for fruitful comparisons among Middle Eastern countries and between the Middle East and other parts of the world

The Frontiers of Corporate Food in Egypt Marion W. Dixon,2023 This book details the development and growth of a corporate agri food system in Egypt Marion W Dixon draws on mixed methods research in Egypt between 2008 and 2012 to show how the growth of corporate food has contributed to growing food insecurity and to multiplying threats to public health from chronic and infectious diseases

The Poetics of Fascism Paul Morrison,1996-02-29 Morrison examines the legacy of the modernist poetics of Ezra Pound and T S Eliot as it relates to current theoretical orthodoxies and traces its influence on the current crisis in post structural literary theory Morrison reads the politics of post structural theory in relation to the socio cultural arguments espoused in the poetry and prose by Pound and Eliot and reveals a continuity between that theory and high modernism s tendency towards fascism Without reducing the political implications of poetry to mere caricature and without slighting the force and fact of literary mediation Morrison has produced a book that will reshape the discussion of the social dimension of modernism He concludes with a provocative analysis of deconstruction and the work of Paul de Man and makes a case for a new post structural theory that can accommodate history

John Clare, Politics and Poetry A. Vardy,2003-10-16 John Clare Politics and Poetry challenges the traditional portrait of poor John Clare the helpless victim of personal and professional circumstance Clare s career has been presented as a disaster of editorial heavy handedness condescension a poor market and conservative patronage Yet Clare was not a passive victim This study explores the sources of the poor Clare tradition and recovers Clare s agency revealing a writer fully engaged in his own professional life and in the social and political questions of the day

The Routledge Handbook of Arabic Poetry Huda Fakhreddine,Suzanne Pinckney Stetkevych,2023-12-22 Comprised of contributions from leading international scholars The Routledge Handbook of Arabic Poetry incorporates political cultural and theoretical paradigms that help place poetic projects in their socio political contexts as well as illuminate connections across the continuum of the Arabic tradition This volume grounds itself in the present moment and from it examines the transformations of the fifteen century Arabic poetic tradition through readings re readings translations reformulations and co optations Furthermore this collection aims to deconstruct the artificial modern pre modern divide and to present the Arabic poetic practice as live and urgent shaped by the experiences and challenges of the twenty first century and at the same time in constant conversation with its long tradition The Routledge Handbook of Arabic Poetry actively seeks to destabilize binaries such as that of East West in contributions that shed light on the interactions of the Arabic tradition with other Middle Eastern traditions such as Persian Turkish and Hebrew and on South South ideological and poetic networks of solidarity that have informed poetic currents across the modern Middle East This volume will be ideal for scholars and students of Arabic Middle Eastern and comparative literature as well as non specialists interested in poetry and in the present moment of the study of Arabic poetry
