Poets Between The Wars:

Shakespeare & the Poets' War James P. Bednarz, 2001 In a remarkable piece of detective work Shakespeare scholar James Bednarz traces the Bard's legendary wit combats with Ben Jonson to their source during the Poets War Bednarz offers the most thorough reevaluation of this War of the Theaters since Harbage's Shakespeare and the Rival Traditions revealing a new vision of Shakespeare as a playwright intimately concerned with the production of his plays the opinions of his rivals and the impact his works had on their original audiences Rather than viewing Shakespeare as an anonymous creator Shakespeare and the Poets War re-creates the contentious entertainment industry that fostered his genius when he first began to write at the Globe in 1599 Bednarz redraws the Poets War as a debate on the social function of drama and the status of the dramatist that involved not only Shakespeare and Jonson but also the lesser known John Marston and Thomas Dekker He shows how this controversy triggered by Jonson's bold new dramatic experiments directly influenced the writing of As You Like It Twelfth Night Troilus and Cressida and Hamlet gave rise to the first modern drama criticism in English and shaped the way we still perceive Shakespeare today Poets of the Second World War Rory Waterman, 2016 An overview of the English language poetry of the Second World War focusing on five of the most remarkable poets of that conflict Keith Douglas Alun Lewis Karl Shapiro Sidney Keyes and Charles Causley Literary History of Canada Carl F. Klinck, Alfred G. Bailey, Claude Bissell, Roy Daniells, Northrop Frye, Desmond Pacey, 1976-12-15 Hailed as a landmark in Canadian literary scholarship when it was originally published in 1965 the Literary History of Canada is now being reissued revised and enlarged in three volumes This major effort of a large group of scholars working in the field of English language Canadian literature provides a comprehensive up to date reference work It has already proven itself invaluable as a source of information on authors genres and literary trends and influences It represents a positive attempt to give a history of Canada in terms of writings which deserve attention because of significant thought form and use of language Volume 3 has been newly written for this edition of the History and covers the years from about 1960 to 1974 The contributors to this volume are Claude Bissell Desmond Pacey Lauriat Lane jr Michael S Cross Thomas A Goudge John Webster Grant John H Chapman William E Swinton Henry B Mayo Malcolm Ross Brandon Conron Clara Thomas Sheila A Egoff John Ripley William H New George Woodcock and Northrop Frye The Oxford Handbook of British and Irish War Poetry Tim Kendall, 2007-02-22 The Handbook ranges widely and in depth across 20th century war poetry incorporating detailed discussions of some of the key poets of the period It is an essential resource for scholars of particular poets and for those interested in wider debates Contributors include some of the most important international poetry critics of our time The German Poets of the First World War Patrick Bridgwater, 2020-01-31 Originally published in 1985 this book provides a full survey of the best and most significant work of German writers to the First World War Including in both German and English the texts of all the main poems discussed this book contains many not readily available elsewhere Authors discussed include Trakl Rilke and George as well as less familiar names The book not only corrects the distorted view of the subject perpetuated by most histories of German literature but will also help to English First World War poetry into perspective The Cambridge Companion to Irish Poets Gerald Dawe,2018 A fresh accessible and authoritative study that conveys the richness and diversity of Irish poets their lives and times Literature of the 1940s: War, Postwar and 'Peace' Gill Plain,2013-09-10 A groundbreaking re reading of the literary response to a decade of trauma and transformation This study undoes the customary division of the 1940s into the Second World War and after Instead it focuses on the thematic preoccupations that emerged from writers immersion in and resistance to the conflict Through seven chapters Documenting Desiring Killing Escaping Grieving Adjusting and Atomising the book sets middlebrow and popular writers alongside residual modernists and new voices to reconstruct the literary landscape of the period Detailed case studies of fiction drama and poetry provide fresh critical perspectives on writers as diverse as Margery Allingham Alexander Baron Elizabeth Bowen Keith Douglas Henry Green Graham Greene Georgette Heyer Alun Lewis Nancy Mitford George Orwell Mervyn Peake J B Priestley Terence Rattigan Mary Renault Stevie Smith Dylan Thomas and Evelyn Waugh Key Features Detailed and theoretically informed case studies of canonical writers such as Bowen Orwell Greene and Waugh Case studies and critical re evaluations of popular genre writers and forgotten writers New Directions in War and Culture Studies Martin Hurcombe,2025-02-05 This edited volume explores the new directions emerging in the field of war and culture through six essays that examine conflicts and their cultural legacy from the First World War to the ongoing conflict in Ukraine The first two essays focus on the French experience of the World Wars through first a study of trench poetry and then the sexual experiences of POWs in Germany The next two essays focus on gendered and especially women s experiences of conflict through first a study of women s war labour in the British army and then analysis of women photojournalists role in promoting the adoption of Vietnamese babies in the USA This volume concludes with two essays focusing on twenty first century conflict The first explores representations of veterancy in contemporary Romanian fiction and the second the phenomenon of fanvids in relation to the ongoing conflict in Ukraine Originally published as a special issue of the Journal for War Culture Studies the book indicates new directions of travel for this sub discipline and reflects the Journal s commitment over the past two decades to bring the Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences into dialogue with each other The Ecopoetics of War Sylvain Belluc,Isabelle Brasme,Guillaume Tanguy,2024-12-30 The Ecopoetics of War explores the interrelationality of human and nonhuman entities in the context of conflict as recorded in literature and culture This collection of essays demonstrates the specific and fertile role of literature in representations of war as it foregrounds the manifold ways in which the borders between human and nonhuman including flora fauna and technology become porous thus questioning traditional onto epistemological and ethical categories Bringing together British American and postcolonial studies The Ecopoetics of War covers a variety of historical periods geographical areas and literary genres Interdisciplinary in its outlook it intertwines war studies ecocriticism literary theory philosophy and cultural studies By analyzing the stylistic and discursive strategies devised by writers to translate the sensory experience of the battlefield the contributors shed light on the unique capacity of literature to foreground the entanglement of human and nonhuman in the context of armed conflict and thus unveil an ecopoetics of war This collection will interest scholars of literature specialists of war studies and ecocriticism and any reader interested in such issues such as ecowar ecocide the Anthropocene or environmental justice It can inspire interdisciplinary teaching or research projects especially in the current context of global environmental crisis
