the trials of growing old in a rapidly changing society He also explores New York with vignettes of life in the big city capturing its loneliness and danger Beginning with Troncoso s widely acclaimed story Angie Luna the tale of a feverish love affair in which a young man rediscovers his Mexican heritage and learns how much love can hurt these stories delve into the many dimensions of the human condition We watch boys playing a game that begins innocently but takes a dangerous turn We see an old Anglo woman befriending her Mexican gardener because both are lonely We witness a man terrorized in his New York apartment taking solace in memories of lost love Two new stories will be welcomed by Troncoso s readers My Life in the City relates a transplanted Texan s yearning for companionship in New York while The Last Tortilla returns to the Southwest to explore family strains after a mother s death and the secret behind that death Each reflects an insight about the human heart that has already established the author s work in literary circles Troncoso sets aside the polemics about social discomfort sometimes found in contemporary Chicano writing and focuses instead on the moral and intellectual lives of his characters The twelve stories gathered here form a richly textured tapestry that adds to our understanding of what it is to be human
