Sacred Gift Of Life:

The Sacred Gift of Life John Breck, 2000 The gift of life J.M. Vorster, 2021 The concept human life and what it entails have become a prominent idea in current theological ethical discourses especially in the growing Christian reflection on bioethics eco ethics and social justice Contemporary Christian ethicists focus on concepts such as flourishing life happiness and joy and how these deep human desires can be realised and fulfilled in life today amidst perennial surges of racism xenophobia sexism systemic violence and policies and structures which further poverty and other forms of social injustices Christian soteriology and subsequent moral agency grapples with the question How can humans flourish in societies today and how should Christian morality be defined and designed to be instrumental in the current pursuit of happiness joy and hope This publication aims to participate in this modern day discourse by proposing relevant theological perspectives on the concept of life and in particular its relevance for Christians living in this age and in an environment that poses major challenges to public morality and the common good In conjunction with the emerging theological interest in the concept of life this project is a modest attempt to take part in the advancement of an ethic of life for today under the rubric of an ethic of flourishing personhood The point of departure is the biblical concept of the gift of life and what this gift entails for understanding human life personhood and moral agency today The line of reasoning in this book delineates the broad concept ethic of life and the biblical concept gift of life and draws the line towards an ethic of flourishing personhood The central theoretical argument of the study is that reformed theology can give direction to the contemporary theological search for meaning and purpose of human life and offer answers to the questions on life facing humanity today especially by pursuing the idea of flourishing personhood Soviet Life ,1983 A Love for Life Dennis R. Di Mauro, 2008-06-20 Is abortion ethical The answer to this question is often obscured by rhetoric slogans and politics And the media message on abortion is often of little help When the typical American opens up her morning newspaper she sees the topic debated between pro lifers and pro choicers but receives little information that could help her make an informed moral decision And as she reads further about the subject it seems that the Christian church often an ethical guide in many of her decisions is of no use to her Sadly she is told that the church is just as divided as the rest of society on the topic So our average American is left to fend for herself She must somehow decide the right answer with little guidance from society from the church or even from God himself But is our average American really without guidance Has she gotten all the information she needs about abortion or has she received only the five second sound bite that leaves her as confused as she was before she heard about the abortion debate And has God been silent on the abortion question Has the church really shown a diversity of opinion on the sanctity of life A Love for Lifewill provide Christians with the biblical and historical information that they need to make an informed decision on the abortion question It will also take a critical and biblically based look at the arguments and theologies of today s most prominent pro choice clergy And it will determine if abortion really fulfills the will of God as many pro choice Christians believe or whether abortion is a clearly sinful act In short readers of A Love for Lifewill discover the realmessage of the church on abortion The Circle of Life James David Audlin,2012-02-22 THE CIRCLE OF LIFE presents traditional oral Native American sacred teachings from the Iroquois Lakota and other traditions The author has been receiving these teachings from elders since his youth The wisdom embraces cosmology ethics epistemology metaphysics sociology psychology healing dream interpretation and more Audlin calls himself neither a spiritual teacher nor an authority but a conduit through which these oral traditions can be presented meaningfully to people in a modern world He outlines universal principles common to many traditional peoples worldwide The Red Road is available to all regardless of religion or ethnicity willing to follow its paths These paths however are often not easy and require deep personal and spiritual commitment Audlin says in his introduction If this book serves any purpose let it be to help us bring the Sacred Hoop of All the Nations back together again so we and all that lives may stand as one in silent awe before that Great Mystery assistance in dying MAID Levan suggests that Canadians can now face their own end with a different spirit While death is the disease that will get us all he points out that dying is a process that can be healed if we are given the time and permission to face it Taking insights that arise from the Abrahamic religious traditions Levan shows how palliative care can be enhanced by MAID a new tool in the repertoire of end of life therapies For newcomers to the subject Levan outlines the facts on MAID what is allowed and who is excluded He studies the many taboos surrounding the taking of one's own life and points a way forward for believers Healing Death is a fresh and inspiring perspective on a very old and anxiety ridden subject
