Gay Midlife and Maturity John Alan Lee, 1991 Aging is stressful for anyone in youth oriented Western societies Elderly people encounter difficulties and discrimination sometimes because of reduced income transportation and housing problems and failing health but often due to the persistent negative stereotypes that color others attitudes and behavior toward old people Gay men and lesbians experience these stresses as well as the numerous additional problems associated with their sexual orientation Gay Midlife and Maturity is a dynamic and positive volume that challenges the long held stereotype of the sad and lonely old homosexual A growing body of international literature much of which is featured in this book rejects this myth and illustrates that older gay men and lesbians cope well with the aging process and are comparable to younger homosexuals in social and psychological adjustment A much needed and major contribution Gay Midlife and
