Lugenia Burns Hope Black Southern Reformer Brown Thrashers:

Lugenia Burns Hope, Black Southern Reformer Jacqueline Anne Rouse, 2004-01-01 From the turn of the century until her death in 1947 Lugenia Burns Hope worked to promote black equality in Atlanta as the wife of John Hope president of both Morehouse College and Atlanta University and on a national level in her discussions with such influential leaders as W E B Du Bois and Jessie Daniel Ames Highlighting the life of the zealous reformer Jacqueline Anne Rouse offers a portrait of a seemingly tireless woman who worked to build the future of her race

Making the World a Better Place Jacqueline Jones Royster, 2023-06-27 In Making the World a Better Place Royster argues that African American women must be taken seriously as historical actors who were more consistently and more variously engaged in community and nation building than they have been given credit for Their considerable rhetorical expertise becomes evident when looking carefully at their work in terms of identity agency authority and expressiveness Their writings constitute a substantial artifactual record of their levels of engagement their excellence in sociopolitical work and the legacies of leadership and action The writing of African American women during the nineteenth century reflects their own perceptions of the ways and means of their lives They deserve to be recognized as consequential contributors to the narratives of the nation rather than marginalized as a group To that end Jacqueline Jones Royster offers a deeper understanding often through their own words of these women their practices and their achievements
