Sweet Ladies!* Laura Amy Schlitz,2015-08-04 Step back to an English village in 1255 where life plays out in dramatic vignettes illuminating twenty two unforgettable characters Winner of the Newbery Medal Maidens monks and millers sons in these pages readers will meet them all There s Hugo the lord s nephew forced to prove his manhood by hunting a wild boar sharp tongued Nelly who supports her family by selling live eels and the peasant s daughter Mogg who gets a clever lesson in how to save a cow from a greedy landlord There s also mud slinging Barbary and her noble victim Jack the compassionate half wit Alice the singing shepherdess and many more With a deep appreciation for the period and a grand affection for both characters and audience Laura Amy Schlitz creates twenty two riveting portraits and linguistic gems equally suited to silent reading or performance Illustrated with pen and ink drawings by Robert Byrd inspired by the Munich Nuremberg manuscript an illuminated poem from thirteenth century Germany this witty historically accurate and utterly human collection forms an exquisite bridge to the people and places of medieval England Doing History Linda S. Levstik,Keith C. Barton,2011-01-26 Now in its fourth edition this popular text offers a unique perspective on teaching and learning history in the elementary and middle grades Through case studies of teachers and students in diverse classrooms and from diverse backgrounds it shows children engaging in authentic historical investigations often in the context of an integrated social studies curriculum The central assumption is that children can engage in valid forms of historical inquiry collecting and data analysis examining the perspectives of people in the past considering multiple interpretations and creating evidence based historical accounts In each chapter the authors explain how the teaching demonstrated in the vignettes reflects basic principles of contemporary learning theory thus providing specific examples of successful activities and placing them in a theoretical context that allows teachers to adapt and apply them in a wide variety of settings New in the Fourth Edition Expanded coverage of world history in two new chapters Integration of new technologies to support history instruction Updated classroom examples bibliographies and references Inventing a

Classroom Kathryn F. Whitmore, Caryl G. Crowell, 1994 What are the patterns of teaching and learning that make a classroom holistic How do children invent oral and written language How do they create the culture and curriculum of a classroom How does the spirit of community and collaboration develop among children and teachers What are the relationships between literacy schooling and socialization as they form among the children These are a few of the broad questions that Kathy Whitmore and Caryl Crowell answer in this absorbing portrait of Caryl's third grade classroom the Sunshine Room Over the span of a school year we watch the students in this bicultural classroom within a bilingual working class neighborhood work and develop together as a community of learners It is the story of how the Sunshine Room like many whole language classrooms invents itself and how in this process the children themselves are continually inventing oral and written language culture and curriculum In two separate collaborative voices the authors carry readers through several critical events in the life of the classroom the process through which the children and the teachers negotiate the curriculum the creation of a theme study about the Middle Ages and a vicarious experience of the Middle East war through children's literature and discussions On an individual level the deep friendship between Seaira an English speaking child from the volunteer community and Lolita a bilingual Latina from the barrio is symbolic of the bicultural experience fostered in the Sunshine Room
