Women, Gender, and Radical Religion in Early Modern Europe Sylvia Monica Brown, 2007 This collection of essays explores the role of women and gender in a broad range of radical religious movements of the post Reformation

Wandering Women and Holy Matrons Leigh Ann Craig, 2009 This book explores women's experiences of pilgrimage in Latin Christendom between 1300 and 1500 C E Later medieval authors harbored grave doubts about women's mobility literary images of mobile women commonly accused them of lust pride greed and deceit Yet real women commonly engaged in pilgrimage in a variety of forms both physical and spiritual voluntary and compulsory and to locations nearby and distant Acting within both practical and social constraints such women helped to construct more positive interpretations of their desire to travel and of their experiences as pilgrims Regardless of how their travel was interpreted those women who succeeded in becoming pilgrims offer us a rare glimpse of ordinary women taking on extraordinary religious and social authority

Networks, Regions and Nations Robert Stein, Judith Pollmann, 2010 This volume offers a fascinating insight into the continuities and discontinuities in the formation of identities in the Low Countries and its neighbouring countries It is an important contribution to the ongoing debates about national and other identities

The Primacy of the Postils John M. Frymire, 2009-12-23 Scholarship on the German Reformation has long equated preaching with Protestantism just as many scholars have employed sermons but usually in supplemental and unsystematic ways Based on an analysis of over 400 standard sermon collections postils produced by Catholics Lutherans and Calvinists 1520 1620 this study offers the first comprehensive systematic presentation of these works from a cross confessional perspective It lays to rest the notion that preaching was somehow distinctively Protestant while tracing the creation production use and censorship of postils These sermon collections were nothing less than the applied distillation of Christianity delivered on a regular basis by the clergy to the laity and as such the most important vehicle for the dissemination of ideas in early modern Germany

The Empire of the Cities Aurelio Espinosa, 2009 This study of the Spanish monarchy bureaucracy and representative government under Charles V before and after the comunero revolt 1520 1521 demonstrates how the emperor and Castilian republics institutionalized management procedures that promoted accountability advanced a meritocracy and facilitated expansionism and domestic stability

Between Sardis and Philadelphia: The Life and World of Pietist Court Preacher Conrad Bröske Douglas Shantz, 2008-09-30 This study examines the life and world of Conrad Bröske 1660 1713 Court Preacher in Offenbach Mayn His claim to fame lies in a ten year period between 1694 and 1704 in which this Marburg trained pastor became a prolific author polemicist and promoter of chiliastic writings thanks to a meeting with Thomas Beverley in 1693 and the baptism of a Muslim convert in 1694 Bröske lived a complex existence between Sardis and Philadelphia as a Reformed court preacher and Philadelphian chiliast His two sided experience was actually the norm among the Pietists including so called radicals Life between paradigms was the German way of being radical in early modern times due to a lack of religious toleration compared to England and the Netherlands Briske's story belongs to the rise of Early Evangelicalism that W R Ward has recently discussed Gemeindeordnung und Kirchengzucht: Johannes a Lascos Kirchenordnung für London (1555) und die reformierte Konfessionsbildung Judith Becker, 2007-06-30 This study describes the origins of early Reformed confessional development using the example of those congregations of religious refugees most heavily influenced by John Laski the congregation at Emden and the Dutch and French Strangers Churches in London At its center are questions about the congregation as the location of ecclesiology The outlines of Laski's theology which viewed the congregation as the communion of the body of Christ are described in comparison to the approaches of other Reformers and in relationship to daily reality in the second half of the sixteenth century Working from a rich base of source materials the author discusses the development of teachings on church offices and the practice of church discipline thus illuminating the self understanding of the three congregations Becker shows how reciprocal influences and attempts to conform led to the unification of doctrine and community life within these congregations Queen's Apprentice Joseph F. Patrouch, 2010 This study seeks to examine a number of themes relating to the roles of the women's court of the central European Habsburgs These include its role in helping consolidate their holdings in central Europe and the Holy Roman Empire and structure their relations with the rest of Europe Christian Humanism A. Alasdair A. MacDonald, Zweder R. W. M. von Martels, Jan Riepeke Veenstra, 2009 It is a misconception that Christianity and Humanism are in any way in conflict with each other The present book shows that through many centuries and especially in the Renaissance the two stood in a relation that was mutually complementary The contributions in this volume treat aspects and manifestations of this cultural symbiosis and they throw new light on authors and texts both more and less familiar The subject areas discussed include religion history philosophy literature and education The age of Renaissance and Reformation is the central focus but earlier and later periods are also featured The contributions comprise a Festschrift for Professor Arjo Vanderjagt whose work deals centrally with both Christianity and Humanism Contributors are Fokke Akkerman István P. Bejczy Alexander Broadie Christoph Burger Marcia L. Colish Albrecht Diem Stephen Gersh Berndt Hamm Volker Honemann Adrie van der Laan Alasdair A MacDonald Peter Mack Zweder von Martels Matthieu van der Meer Hans Mooij Simone Mooij Valk Just Niemeijer John North Willemien Otten Jan Papy Detlev P. Veenstra and Ronald Witt The Serpent and the Rose: The Immaculate Conception and Hispanic Poetry in the Late Medieval Period Lesley K. Twomey, 2008-06-03 The Serpent and the Rose examines the theological and liturgical context for the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception in the Middle Ages from primary sources in Iberian archives Its main focus is a study of Marian poetry from Alfonso the Wise and Gonzalo de Berceo through to the poetry collections of the late fifteenth century showing how poets took themes from the Bible and apocryphal literature combining them to defend and praise Mary's conception without sin Individual chapters assess how they depicted Mary's prefiguration in the Old Testament by the Woman who defeated the serpent the young bride of the Song of Songs or the semi deity Wisdom how they portray her as the mystic rose and as the new Eve

Justification and Participation in Christ Olli-Pekka Vainio, 2008-02-28 The unity of the early Lutheran reformation even in the central themes such as justification is still an open question This study examines the development of the doctrine of justification in the works of the prominent first and second generation Lutheran reformers from the viewpoints of divine participation and effectivity of justification Generally Luther's idea of Christ's real presence in the believer as the central part of justification is maintained and taught by all Reformers while they simultaneously develop various theological frameworks to depict the nature of participation However in some cases these developed models are contradictory which causes tension between theologians resulting in the invention of new doctrinal formulations
