Historic York County Michael C. Scoggins, 2009 States at War, Volume 1 Richard F. Miller, 2013-11-05 While many Civil War reference books exist there is no single compendium that contains important details about the combatant states and territories that Civil War researchers can readily access for their work People looking for information about the organization activities economies demographics and prominent personalities of Civil War states and state governments must assemble data from a variety of sources and many key sources remain unavailable online This volume the first of six provides a crucial reference book for Civil War scholars and historians professional or amateur seeking information about individual states or groups of states Its principal sources include the Official Records state adjutant general reports legislative journals state and federal legislation federal and state executive speeches and proclamations and the general and special orders issued by the military authorities of both governments Designed and organized for easy use this book can be read in two ways by individual state with each chapter offering a stand alone skeletal history of an individual state s war years or across states comparing reactions to the same event or solutions to the same problems

One-Room Schoolhouses of New Hampshire Bruce D. Heald,2014-07-15 The quaint one room schoolhouses dotting New Hampshire formed the backbone of the early Granite State education system Education minded communities began building these bare bones schools in the late seventeenth century In a modest log or clapboard structure a single teacher faced the challenge of instructing students of all grades through farming seasons and the daily rigors of rural life Often these determined educators were limited to instructing students from whichever books pupils brought from home Despite this education was highly valued and students trekked through the weather of all seasons and endured corporal discipline to become literate and learned Author Bruce Heald explores the evolution of New Hampshire s one room schoolhouses and shares the firsthand accounts and memories of former pupils

Historic Takings in Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area David Fazzino,2022-06-27 The Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area DEWA is among the busiest National Park Service NPS units with millions of annual visitors In this book David Fazzino uses oral history and archival work to consider the ramifications of government land takings done half a century ago to uproot families and communities across 70 000 acres in Pennsylvania and New Jersey Fazzino situates these land takings in historical context to explain the ways places have been taken both physically and ideologically in the name of progress development wilderness and recreation The author contrasts legal valuations measured along utilitarian and material lines with lived valuations which account for place as experiential intimate personal and relational Fazzino also considers the ruins of what was and the remains of past lives in the valley to suggest inclusive possibilities of future management regimes in DEWA and federal public lands more broadly

Lost Mansions of Mississippi, Volume II Mary Carol Miller,2010-09-14 As preservationist Mary Carol Miller talked with Mississippians about her books on lost mansions and landmarks enthusiasts brought her more stories of great architecture ravaged by time The twenty seven houses included in her new book are among the most memorable of Mississippi s vanished antebellum and Victorian mansions The list ranges from the oldest house in the Natchez region lost in a 1966 fire to a Reconstruction era home that found new life as a school for freed slaves From two Gulf Coast landmarks both lost to Hurricane Katrina to the mysteriously misplaced facades of Hernando s White House and Columbus s Flynnwood these homes mark high points in the broad sweep of Mississippi history and the state s architectural legacy Miller tells the stories of these homes through accounts from the families who built and maintained them These structures run the stylistic gamut from Greek revival to Second Empire and their owners include everyone from Revolutionary era soldiers to governors and scoundrels
