Love and Remembrance Frank A. Domínguez, 2021-12-14 Jorge Manrique was the greatest poet of fifteenth century Castile and one of the three or four greatest in Spanish literature Frank A Domínguez offers here an introduction to Manrique's poetry and the first book length study of him in English in fifty years After presenting the biographical and historical context of Manrique's poetry Domínguez examines the poet's love lyrics describing the large fund of commonplaces and forms that Manrique's verses share with those of other poets of his age Manrique's highly stylized language and parallel verse structures express the obsession of the lover with the beloved Moreover his attention to parallel construe the world's greatest In treating the Coplas Domínguez not only offers a sensitive reading of the elegy but also examines questions of text structure and style Like the love lyrics the Coplas present a high incidence of parallel structures that make for clarity and symmetry Domínguez also finds that the complex stylistic relationships of the verses provide the Coplas with a unity that is deeper and more fundamental than has generally been perceived This study eclectic in its critical approaches will be the standard English work on Manrique for years to come Digital Mantras Steven R. M. Tabor, 2025-09-24 For centuries Urdu speaking poets and their audiences have gathered for mush irahs literary competitions for spoken word verse Today the mush irah is a global phenomenon as audiences in the millions convene in person and online for hours of poetic performance Tracing these modern gatherings back to their origins Nathan L M Tabor introduces readers to the popular emergence of the mush irah in eighteenth century Delhi Scores of poets composed two line lyric poems called hazals that they muttered sang shouted and spat out in contentious salon spaces across India's largest metropolis Delhi's mush irahs circulated lyrics satires and songs for both common and elite poets who traded and assessed words as an urban commodity that defined hierarchy taste and notions of delight Via poets verse exchanges and their histories of Delhi's literary scene City of Lyrics reconstructs the social networks
