Lyrics From Arabia:

Music in Arabia Issa Boulos, Virginia Danielson, Anne K. Rasmussen, 2021-09-07 Music in Arabia extends and challenges existing narratives of the region's distinctive but understudied music to reveal diverse and dynamic music cultures rooted in centuries-old heritage. Contributors to Music in Arabia bring a critical eye and ear to the contemporary soundscape, musical life, and expressive culture in the Gulf region. Including work by leading scholars and local authorities, this collection presents fresh perspectives and new research addressing why musical expression is fundamental to the area's diverse transnational communities. The volume also examines music circulation as a commodity, such as with the production of early recordings, the transnational music industry, the context of the Arab Spring, and the region's popular music markets. As a bonus, readers can access a linked website containing audiovisual examples of the music, dance, and expressive culture introduced throughout the book. With the work of resident scholars and heritage practitioners in conversation with that of researchers from the United States and Europe, Music in Arabia offers both context and content to clarify how music articulates identity and nation among multiethnic, multiracial, and multinational populations.

The Literature of Arabia Various, 2019-12-16 The Literature of Arabia is a comprehensive anthology that traverses the rich and diverse landscape of Arabic literary expression, showcasing works that date from the pre-Islamic era to contemporary times. This collection encompasses poetry, prose, and drama, illuminating the literary styles that have evolved within the socio-political context of Arab societies. The editors employ a critical literary lens, weaving cultural, historical, and linguistic threads to illuminate the nuances of themes such as love, politics, and identity, offering readers a profound understanding of Arabian literary traditions. The compendium brings together various esteemed scholars and writers, each contributing insights rooted in their rich cultural heritages and academic backgrounds. These contributors have often specialized in Arabic literature, history, or cultural studies, drawing from personal experiences and extensive research that resonate with the text's broad narratives. Their synthesis not only honors ancient texts but also reveals the continuity and transformation of themes across centuries, emphasizing the enduring relevance of Arabian literature in a modern context. This anthology is highly recommended for scholars, students, and anyone interested in the intricate tapestry of Arabic literature. It serves as an essential reference for understanding the complexities of Arabic literary traditions and their global influences, enticing readers to explore the profound stories and voices that have shaped the Arabian literary landscape.

Transnational Arab Stardom Kaya Davies Hayon, Stefanie Van de Peer, 2024-01-25 Building on the work of star studies scholars this collection provides contextual analyses of off screen representation as well as close textual analyses of films and star personas thereby offering an in depth study of the Arab star as text and context of Arab cinema Using the tools of audience reception studies the collection will also look at how stars of film stage screen and new media are viewed and received in different cultural contexts both within and outside of the Arabic speaking world Arab cinema is often discussed in terms of political representation and independent art film but rarely in terms of stardom glamour performance or masquerade Aside from a few individual studies on female stardom or aspects of Arab masculinity no major English language study on Arab stardom exists and collections on transnational stars or world cinema also often neglect to include Arab performers This new book seeks to address this gap by providing the first study dedicated entirely to stardom on the Arab screen Structured chronologically and thematically this collection highlights and explores Arab film screen and music stars through a transnational and interdisciplinary set of contributions that draw on feminist performance and film theories media studies sound studies material culture queer star and celebrity studies and social media studies Arabia's Hidden America Fadia Basrawi, 2007 In those days of random destruction and trigger happy militiamen one never knew what to expect to see on the streets I was doing my grocery shopping one afternoon when two militia boys rushed past One had three revolvers stuffed in his belt and the other had two bullet belts crisscrossing his chest and two Kalashnikovs slung over his shoulder Both were carrying bouquets of red roses It was Mother's Day from Arabia's Hidden America Author Fadia Basrawi a Saudi Arab grew up in the strictly circumscribed and tailor made desert Disneyland of Aramco the Arabian American Oil Company This slice of modern suburban middle class America was located in Dhahran one of the leading cities of Saudi Arabia a theocratic Muslim kingdom run according to strict Wahabbi Shari'a law Eventually Fadia moved to Beirut the glitzy Paris of the Middle East to attend high school In Beirut she fell in love with a passionate and idealistic Lebanese journalist with whom she eloped against her parents' wishes subsequently getting caught up in Lebanon's fifteen year civil war while raising a family of five children Providing a fascinating account of a Saudi woman's painful journey from naive Aramco girl to life as a resident of a war torn capital city this book provides new insight into two very different Middle Eastern worlds about which so little is known by those living outside the region Music in Ancient Arabia and Spain Julián Ribera, 1929 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Wail S. Hassan, 2017-08-01 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions is the most comprehensive treatment of the subject to date In scope the book encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arabic speaking country and in Arab immigrant destinations on six continents Editor Wail S Hassan and his contributors describe a novelistic phenomenon which has pre modern roots stretching centuries back within the Arabic cultural tradition and branching outward geographically and linguistically to every Arab country and to Arab writing in many languages around the world The first of three innovative dimensions of this Handbook consists of examining the ways in which the Arabic novel emerged out of a syncretic merger between Arabic and European forms and techniques rather than being a simple importation of the latter and rejection of the former as early critics of the Arabic novel claimed The second involves mapping the novel geographically as it took root in every Arab country developing into often distinct though overlapping and interconnected local traditions Finally the Handbook concerns the multilingual character of the novel in the Arab world and by Arab immigrants and their descendants around the world both in Arabic and in at least a dozen other languages The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions reflects the current status of research in the broad field of Arab novelistic traditions and signals toward new directions of inquiry Arab Subcultures Tarik Sabry, Layal Ftouni, 2016-12-18 What is Arab about

Arab subcultures This is the first book to set out to delineate different ways of studying and theorising Arab subcultural groups and practices including film graffiti music live art performances Arab techies and youth cultures Contributors tackle a number of questions including How is the study of Arab subcultures to be theorised How are we to analyse such creative processes in a new worldliness characterised by trans temporality and trans subjectivity Arab Subcultures effectively opens up a critical and interdisciplinary dialogue about Arab subcultures with different fields of enquiry including anthropology philosophy art criticism and cultural studies at the heart of which lies the key intellectual task of re imagining the uneasy relation between aesthetics and politics in the age of revolutions Arab Youth Samir Khalaf, Roseanne Saad

Khalaf, 2012-01-30 In 2011 Arab youth took to the streets in their thousands to demand their freedom Although it is too early to speculate on the ultimate outcome of the uprisings one auspicious feature stands out they reveal the genesis of a new generation sparked by the desire for civil liberties advocacy for human rights and participatory democracy This unique volume explores some of the antecedents of the upheavals and anticipates alternative venues of resistance that marginalized youth from Lebanon Syria and Palestine to Saudi Arabia Morocco and Iran can mobilize to realize their emancipatory expectations Themes covered include the forging of meaningful collective identities in times of risk and uncertainty youth militancy neighborhood violence and youth gangs the surge of youthful activism and youths expressive outlets through popular arts and street music
