Matrifocal Family Power Pluralism And Politics:

The Matrifocal Family Raymond T. Smith, 2014-04-23 The essays in this collection focus attention on the enormous contribution made by women in maintaining family relations in situations of both racial and gender domination

Motherhood, Social Policies and Women's Activism in Latin America Alejandra Ramm, Jasmine Gideon, 2019-07-10 This book is a critical resource for understanding the relationship between gender social policy and women's activism in Latin America with specific reference to Chile Latin America's mother centered kinship system makes it an ideal field in which to study motherhood and maternalism the ways in which motherhood becomes a public policy issue As maternalism embraces and enhances gender differences it has been criticized for deepening gender inequalities Yet invoking motherhood continues to offer an effective strategy for advancing women's living conditions and rights and for women themselves to be present in the public sphere In analyzing these important relationships the contributors to this volume discuss maternal health sexual and reproductive rights labor programs paid employment women miners unionization housing policies environmental suffering and LGBTQ intimate partner violence

The Dilemmas of Ethnic Policy John Gaffar La Guerre, 2017-01-03 The Dilemmas of Ethnic Policy A Global Perspective argues that ethnic conflict increases or decreases in relation to changes in the social structure and the location and distribution of political power Ethnic grievances derive from lack of access to valued resources and elites play a crucial role in allocating those resources This book examines the experiences of five countries with a history of ethnic conflict former Yugoslavia Bosnia Herzegovina Guyana Trinidad and Tobago and the United States It finds that in many cases solutions adopted to mitigate ethnic conflict have unintended consequences Often supposed solutions confuse cause and effect and in fact worsen ethnic conflict Attempts to address identity issues by pandering to them often led to further ethnic demands This book argues that based on the experiences of the countries under examination the best course is to adopt policies that encourage alliances between and among ethnic groups

Caribbean Journeys Karen Fog Olwig, 2007-06-12 An ethnographic study of migration based on the experiences of three dispersed Caribbean families as they maintain networks across their diverse locations

A Companion to Gender Studies Philomena Essed, David Theo Goldberg, Audrey Kobayashi, 2009-03-16 A Companion to Gender Studies presents a unified and comprehensive vision of its field and its new directions It is designed to demonstrate in action the rich interplay between gender and other markers of social position and disadvantage such as race class ethnicity and nationality Presents a unified and comprehensive vision of gender studies and its new directions injecting a much needed infusion of new ideas into the field Organized thematically and written in a lucid and lively fashion each chapter gives insightful consideration to the differing views on its topic and also clarifies each contributor's own position Features original contributions from an international panel of leading experts in the field and is co edited by the well known and internationally respected David Theo Goldberg

The Creolisation of London Kinship Elaine Bauer, 2010 In the last 50 years the United Kingdom has witnessed a growing proportion of mixed African

Caribbean and white British families With rich new primary evidence of mixed race in the capital city The Creolisation of London Kinship thoughtfully explores this population Making an indelible contribution to both kinship research and wider social debates the book emphasises a long term evolution of family relationships across generations Individuals are followed through changing social and historical contexts seeking to understand in how far many of these transformations may be interpreted as creolisation Examined too are strategies and innovations in relationship construction the social constraints put upon them the special significance of women and children in kinship work and the importance of non biological as well as biological notions of family relatedness P 4 of cover

Playing with Languages Amy L. Paugh, 2014-05-01 Over several generations villagers of Dominica have been shifting from Patwa an Afro French creole to English the official language Despite government efforts at Patwa revitalization and cultural heritage tourism rural caregivers and teachers prohibit children from speaking Patwa in their presence Drawing on detailed ethnographic fieldwork and analysis of video recorded social interaction in naturalistic home school village and urban settings the study explores this paradox and examines the role of children and their social worlds It offers much needed insights into the study of language socialization language shift and Caribbean children s agency and social lives contributing to the burgeoning interdisciplinary study of children s cultures Further it demonstrates the critical role played by children in the transmission and transformation of linguistic practices which ultimately may determine the fate of a language

Food in Cuba Hanna Garth, 2023-05-25 Garth s in depth and intimate ethnography portrays the shortcomings in Cuba s welfare system and the profound consequences for the way people eat Megan A Carney author of The Unending Hunger Food in Cuba follows Cuban families as they struggle to maintain a decent quality of life in Cuba s faltering post Soviet welfare state by looking at the social and emotional dimensions of food access Based on extensive fieldwork with families in Santiago de Cuba Hanna Garth examines Cuban families attempts to acquire and assemble a decent meal unraveling the household dynamics community interactions and individual reflections on everyday life in today s Cuba With the collapse of the Soviet Union in the 1990s Cuba lost its most significant trade partner Although trade agreements have improved the quantity and quality of rationed food in Cuba many Cubans still report living with food shortages and economic hardship Garth tells the stories of families that face the daily challenge of acquiring not only enough food but food that meets personal and cultural standards She argues that these ongoing struggles produce what the Cuban families describe as a change in character and that for some this shifting concept of self leads to a transformation of Cuban identity

Sexing the Caribbean Kamala Kempadoo, 2004-12 The primary focus of the book is to illuminate intersections of gender sexuality work race and economic relations in the Caribbean

Colonial Relations Adele Perry, 2015-04-02 A new perspective on the nineteenth century imperial world through one family s history across North America the Caribbean and United Kingdom Revealing how these figures demonstrate complicated historical trajectories of empire and nation Adele Perry illustrates how gender intimacy and family were key to making and remaking imperial politics
