Matters Of Life And Death New American Stories:

Matters of Life and Death Tobias Wolff, 1983 A Matter of Life and Death Rosalind Bradley, 2016-08-18 This book brings together contributors from different backgrounds including a Holocaust survivor and a death row inmate to explore perspectives on death Each contributor offers commentary on a written or visual work that best expresses death to them A meaningful volume for the bereaved and those working in bereavement or spirituality The Bible in the American Short Story Lesleigh Cushing Stahlberg, Peter S. Hawkins, 2017-11-02 The Bible in the American Short Story examines Biblical influences in the post World War II American short story In a series of accessible chapters Lesleigh Cushing Stahlberg and Peter S Hawkins offer close readings of short stories by leading contemporary writers such as Flannery O Connor Allegra Goodman Tobias Wolff and Kirstin Valdez Quade that highlight the biblical passages that they reference Exploring episodes from the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament and both Jewish and Christian heritages this book is an important contribution to understanding the influence of the Bible in contemporary literature Things As They Are Michael Jackson, 1996-08-22 The real beauty of this book is that the thinking does not stop deep in the thickets of philosophic references Instead true to the spirit of phenomenology we are provided with provocative accounts of how such thinking flows in contemporary anthropological practice XCP Cross Cultural Poetics In this timely collection thirteen contemporary ethnographers demonstrate the importance of phenomenological and existential ideas for anthropology In emphasizing the link between the empirical and the experiential these ethnographers also explore the relationship between phenomenology and other theories of the lifeworld such as existentialism radical empiricism and critical theory Playing the Hand We Are Dealt Michael Jackson, 2024-10-01 The relationship between literature and life can be construed as a counterpoint of fate and freewill Rather than equating fate to the hand we are dealt which is reducible to the social or familial environments into which we are born this book explores the idea of fate through the books that shape our lives and under whose influence we write Writing in this sense is seen as beyond its utility of making meaning It is a way of recovering agency in the face of overwhelming experiences In juxtaposing factuality and fiction the author makes a case for a radically empirical approach to human experience Shouting Down the Silence David C Dougherty, 2010-10-01 Shouting Down the Silence presents the first complete biography of Stanley Elkin a preeminent novelist who consistently won high marks from critics but whose complexities of style seemed destined to elude the popular acclaim he hoped to attain From the publication of his second novel A Bad Man in 1967 to his death in 1995 Elkin was tormented by the desire for both material and artistic success Elkin's novels were taught in colleges and universities his fiction received high praise from critics and reviewers two of his novels won National Book Critics Circle Awards and his short stories were widely anthologized and yet he was unable to achieve renown beyond the avant garde or to escape the stigma of being an academic writer He wanted to be Faulkner but he had trouble being Elkin Drawing on personal interviews and an intimate knowledge of Elkin's life and works David C Dougherty captures Elkin's early life as the son of a charismatic intimidating and remarkably successful Jewish immigrant from Russia as well as his later career at Washington University in St Louis. A frequent participant at the annual Bread Loaf Writers conference he was the friend and sometime antagonist of other important writers particularly Saul Bellow William Gass Howard Nemerov and Robert Coover. Despite failed attempts to bridge the gap from his academic post to wide popular success Elkin continued to write essays stories and novels that garnered unerring praise. His was a classic dilemma of an intellectual aesthete loath to make use of the common devices of popular appeal. The book details the ambition the success the friction and the foibles of a writer who won fame but not the fame he wanted. The Other Shore Michael Jackson, 2013

In this book ethnographer and poet Michael Jackson addresses the interplay between modes of writing modes of understanding and modes of being in the world. Drawing on literary anthropological and autobiographical sources he explores writing as a technique akin to ritual oral storytelling magic and meditation that enables us to reach beyond the limits of everyday life and forge virtual relationships and imagined communities. Although Maurice Blanchot wrote of the impossibility of writing the passion and paradox of literature lies in its attempt to achieve the impossible a leap of faith that calls to mind the mystic's dark night of the soul unrequited love nostalgic or utopian longing and the ethnographer's attempt to know the world from the standpoint of others to put himself or herself in their place. Every writer whether of ethnography poetry or fiction imagines that his or her own experiences echo the experiences of others and that despite the need for isolation and silence his or her work consummates a relationship with them. A Matter of Life and Death Rosemary Altea, 2008-04-17. Spiritual medium and healer Rosemary Altea touched the lives of millions with her New York Times bestseller The Eagle and the Rose. In this classic work Altea described how she discovered her gift and recounted the miraculous experiences she had in her early years of connecting the living with the dead. In A Matter of Life and Death she shares inspiring new stories of working with her spirit guide Grey Eagle to help sick and troubled people heal to help people recognize their true path in life or to help people find peace in reuniting with departed loved ones. Born and raised in England from the time she was a young girl Rosemary Altea heard voices and had visions of people who had died. But feeling threatened by her mother the young Rosemary kept silent about the strange menacing faces she saw in the dark. In the 1970s now in her mid thirties with a ten year old daughter of her own Rosemary was abandoned by her husband. Nearing rock bottom emotionally she began to nurture her spiritual gifts. She claims it was her spirit guide Grey Eagle who advised her to publish her first book The Eagle and the Rose. Even as the world has come to accept even revere people who have the ability to communicate with the dead with various mediums gracing the bestseller list and with such television shows as The Medium and Ghost Whisperer high in the ratings in recent years Rosemary Altea has had to struggle to realize the transformational power of her work. From defending her integrity as a medium in a vicious lawsuit to coping with the loss of a friend who was very close to her heart now Altea brings us A Matter of Life and Death detailing a new chapter in her rich personal history as she recounts story after story of remarkable encounters with the spirit world encounters that will amaze and inspire Altea s millions of fans Panic Brooke Warner, Leonard Schmidt, 2002-08-14 Panic is not a single state with only one set of feelings and predictable emotions The essays and articles in this book span various disciplines psychology medicine literature and history tied together by the common thread of panic including how it is manifested in culture tradition and experience and its differing treatments Included are original as well as previously published writings by Peter A Levine Paul Pitchford and Kim Newman The Politics of Storytelling Michael Jackson, 2013-09-12 Hannah Arendt argued that the political is best understood as a power relation between private and public realms and that storytelling is a vital bridge between these realms a site where individualized passions and shared perspectives are contested and interwoven Jackson explores and expands Arendt s ideas through a cross cultural analysis of storytelling that includes Kuranko stories from Sierra Leone Aboriginal stories of the stolen generation stories recounted before the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission and stories of refugees renegades and war veterans Focusing on the violent and volatile conditions under which stories are and are not told and exploring the various ways in which narrative reworkings of reality enable people to symbolically alter subject object relations Jackson shows how storytelling may restore existential viability to the intersubjective fields of self and other self and state self and situation
